Harding Signature Given Peace Bill

KNOX-PORTER RESOLUTION ENDS WAR STATE

Chief Executive's O. K. Is Affixed to Measure
Declaring Peace

RARITAN, N. J., July 2.—President Harding signed the Knox-Porter resolution, declaring peace with the Central powers, at 3:10 p. m. Eastern standard time, today.

The President returned from a golf game at Bernardsville, N. J., this afternoon and signed the peace resolution awarding him at Senator Frelinghuysen's residence here.

The President, clad in a Palm Beach suit, sat on the veranda and leisurely examined the resolution, which had been brought from Washington by W. Smithers of the White House executive staff.

After a few moments the President walked into the living room of the Frelinghuysen house and took his place at an old mahogany table.

Cameramen set up their machines in a semi-circle in front of him.

Speaker Gillett, Senator Frelinghuysen, Senator Kellogg, Senator Hale and Dr. Sawyer were grouped around the President when he took a small black pen in his hand.

Mrs. Harding was resting upstairs but other women in the party were in the room.

Harding adjusted his glasses and signed his name on the last page of the resolution.

He laid the pen down, looked around and said:
"That's it."

Little Group Applauds
The little group applauded and congratulated the President.

The pen used in signing the resolution will be given to Congressman Porter, chairman of the house foreign affairs committee, whose resolution was adopted as the form of the peace measure.

Neither President Harding nor any officials present were positive just when peace becomes effective.

Speaker Gillett believed that the document requires certification by the state department before becoming operative, but he was not certain of this.

"30" BULLETINS

PASADENA, July 2.—Vernon Blenkiron of the Los Angeles Athletic club won the 100-yard dash in the first heat at Paddock Field. Time was 10 flat. John R. Patterson of Colgate University came in second and A. Newhoff, Olympic Club, was third. The second heat was won by E. Sudden, Olympic Club. Time 10:1. J. S. Prescott, Chicago Athletic association, was second, and Al Griley, of the Multnomah Club of Portland, was third.

CALIFORNIA GIRL WINS.
WIMBLEDON, England, July 2.—Randolph Lycett, Great Britain, and Miss Elizabeth Ryan of California, today defeated Max Woosnam of Great Britain and Miss Hawkins in the finals for the mixed doubles championship, 6-3, 6-1.

Your July Needs

Many, indeed, are the needs of this midsummer month of July. They, one and all, can be supplied at little expense, from an ice-box and an electric fan to a domestic servant for the country home or camp, if you will only look for one and all of these summer necessities in the advertising columns of The Register, especially the Want Ads.

When you have a need, don't waste time wondering if the Want Ads can get it for you or not. Read them over, then, if what you need is not advertised, run a little Want Ad of your own, asking for it and you will get it in no time.

The Want Ads can do any kind of a job imaginable—try them.

The Register Will Not Be Published Next Monday, July 4

In accordance with its custom in previous years, The Register will not publish on Independence Day, Monday, July 4.

As all the banks, public offices, the post office and practically every place of business in the city will be closed on that day, The Register, desiring that its employees have an opportunity to enjoy a holiday, will not print next Monday.

BABE RUTH GOES ON BATTING SPREE, HITS TWO MORE HOME RUNS

NEW YORK, July 2.—Babe Ruth went on a batting spree today. The Bambino knocked his 29th and 30th home runs of the season against Boston.

The first crash came in the seventh inning of the first game and the second in the first inning of the second game. Russell was the first victim and Myers the second. One man was on when he hit his second circuit swat.

S. A. FOLK TELL THEIR VIEWS AS TO OUTCOME OF BIG RING CLASH

That there was strong feeling for the Frenchman, Carpentier, to take the heavyweight crown away from Jack Dempsey, in Santa Ana was evidenced today, following The Register "flash" that the American title holder had stored away his most formidable opponent in the fourth round.

During the second round when Carpentier staggered Dempsey with successive blows and the announcement was megaphoned to the listeners in front of The Register building that Dempsey looked to be almost out at the end of the period, the noise that resulted was as great as when the knockout report was made.

With a view of finding out some sort of local opinion after the fight, a Register representative interviewed several interested followers of the fight and found their opinion to be as follows:

Paul Knauf—I believed and hoped that Dempsey would win. Carpentier wasn't in the same class and I believe Descamps knew it and kept him man covered during the training period for that reason.

Ed McFadden—Like a lot of other American Legion members, I hoped that Carpentier would win. Here's service man can take the title from Dempsey soon.

Sam Stein—I was too busy fighting fireworks for the Fourth to pay much attention to the fight, but I'm glad Dempsey won.

H. D. Connell—I hoped Carpentier would win but figured Dempsey. I got a bigger kick out of finding I had the fourth round in the pool for the finish of the fight than in the result itself.

Judge J. B. Cox—Suited me to a T. I figured Dempsey all the time.

Bob Gram—Somebody stole the coin that was marked Carpentier on both sides. Dempsey is the greatest fighter that ever lived.

DENIES FREEDMAN NOT TO GRAPPLE LEONARD

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., July 2.—Floyd Fitzsimmons, promoter, today denied published reports that Sailor Freedman had balked in his scheduled ten-round fight with Benny Leonard, to be held here Independence day.

"It's news to me," Fitzsimmons said. "The fight will go on."

$300,000 IS DAMAGE IN LODI FIRE LEFT THUMB OF GEORGES IS BROKEN

Two Blocks Destroyed as Fruit Packers Suffer Big Loss

United Press Leased Wire
LODI, July 2.—Fire of unknown origin, starting early today destroyed more than two business blocks here with a loss of over $300,000. The flames were still raging at noon.

The buildings destroyed included: Earl Fruit company's packing sheds.

American Fruit Growers' sheds. Anderson Packing company's sheds and fruit houses.

T. H. Pepper's fruit house. Cosmopolitan hotel. Sieglakos stables.

A number of residences. Several buildings occupied by Chinese.

The Earl Fruit company estimates its loss at between $30,000 and $40,000. Its packing and shipping houses and offices were completely destroyed.

The American Fruit Growers' loss is said to be about $40,000.

A strong north wind fanned the flames and made it almost impossible to bring them under control.

Failure of the pumping plant aided the spread of the flames. A quantity of cartridges in a Japanese hotel exploded, causing much excitement.

Several inmates of a hotel were carried out by police and firemen, but no one was seriously hurt.

3 BLOCKS RAZED IN MARYSVILLE FIRE

MARYSVILLE, Calif., July 2.—Fire which started in the pavilions this afternoon at 2:05 p. m., had swept three blocks of the center of Marysville and was threatening five adjoining blocks surrounding.

The fire department thus far had been powerless against the fire, which was fanned by a stiff north wind.

A lumber yard and several apartments were included in the buildings burned.

"I Was Beaten by Better Man," Says Frenchman After Bout

ARENA, JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—"I was beaten by a better man—a real champion," said Georges Carpentier to the United Press immediately after the fight.

"I broke my right hand in the second round when I landed a heavy overhand punch on Dempsey's jaw. After that I could only stand him off, and he was too strong for me."

Dempsey hits the most powerful blows I have ever felt. I felt that I was much too light for him. In the fourth round I knew I was going but after the first knockdown I decided to make one last try."

Carpentier made his statement after the fight, especially for the French press.

"I undoubtedly met the best man in the world. He was too strong for me. He is the most formidable hitter of all time. He is a great fighter. He was in grand condition."

OVERHAND RIGHT STAGGERS FRENCH CHAMPION

ARENA, JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—Georges Carpentier broke the thumb on his right hand in the second round, Francois Descamps, his manager, announced in the dressing room, after the fight. Eye witnesses could see that the thumb was badly swollen, though it was pointed out that a bad sprain sometimes has the appearance of a fracture.

Descamps said it was the overhand right which staggered Dempsey that resulted in the injury.

DEMPSEY IS REAL CHAMPION SAVS DESCAMPS

ARENA, JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—"Dempsey is a real champion," said Francois Descamps in the dressing room after the fight. "It was a case of the best light heavyweight in the world against the best heavyweight—another case of a Stanley Ketchel against a Jack Johnson."

CARPENTIER MAY MEET GIBBONS LABOR DAY

ARENA, JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—Georges Carpentier probably will meet Tommy Gibbons in the arena Labor Day. Tex Rickard announced this afternoon. The match, however, has not yet been closed.

GATE RECEIPTS $1,600,000 AT BIG CLASH

ARENA, JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 2.—Eighty thousand persons paid their way into the arena here this afternoon to see the Dempsey-Carpentier fight. Tex Rickard estimated. The total gate receipts were figured at approximately $1,600,000. The total attendance, counting the passes, was estimated at 90,000.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 2.—"I knew my boy would win," said Mrs. Hyram Dempsey, mother of the champion today. "I did not keep my resolution about staying home and working. I grew too interested and joined the throng in front of the Salt Lake Telegram office, waiting for the returns."

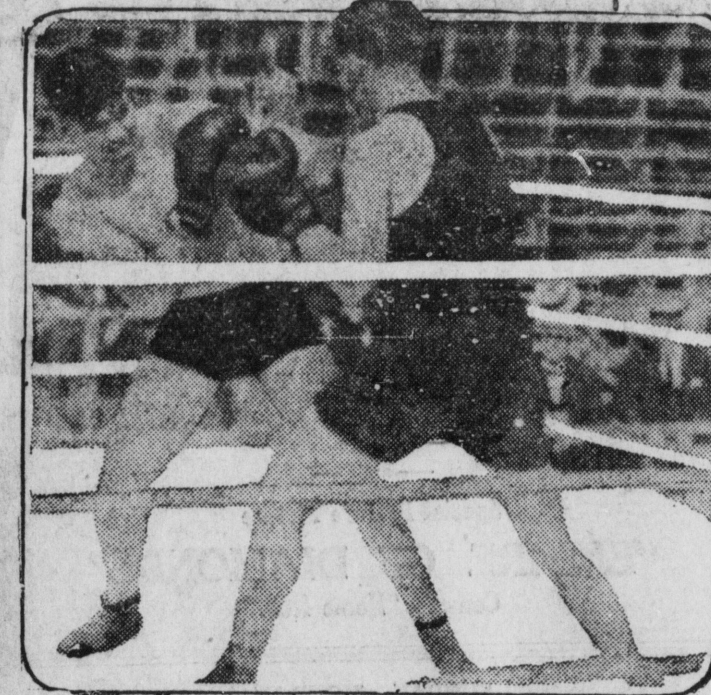

AMERICAN ROTARIANS TO CELEBRATE FOURTH WHERE YANKS FOUGHT

BOUT NEWS TOLD TO 1500 FANS BY REGISTER

Dempsey won.
Santa Ana knew it before Carpentier had been lifted from the canvas by his manager, Descamps, to his corner of the arena in Jersey City, following Dempsey's terrific right to the Frenchman's jaw.

This was the first time in the history of Santa Ana that a direct leased wire from ringside to The Register office gave the results of such a classic blow for blow.

Santa Anans, numbering some 1500, gathered in the street before The Register office long before the fight was started. Bulletins announced the weather conditions shortly before the opening gong, and gave details of the crowd surging in to Tex Rickard's show place.

Megaphone Used.
Results of the preliminary bouts were given by the throng before The Register office, while it waited for the big fight to start. Then came the "flash" that the champion and his challenger were in the ring.

From then on the rounds were given blow by blow by the husky voiced sporting editor and his megaphone. Cheers greeted each advantage gained by the favorite in far-away Jersey.

Women were present in the crowd in front of The Register office, as also women were present at the ringside. Though not as noisy as the

KNOCKS OUT FRENCH CHAMPION IN FOURTH AS 90,000 FRANTIC

(United Press Leased Wire)
RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, July 2.—The world's heavyweight boxing crown continues to rest on the head of an American.

Jack Dempsey today successfully defended the title by knocking out Georges Carpentier, pride of France, in the fourth round of their scheduled twelve-round bout.

It is estimated that more than 90,000 fans witnessed the bout—the greatest crowd in ring history.

The end came early in the fourth round. Two terrific right smashes to the jaw floored the Frenchman.

After the first blow he went down for the count of nine. Carpentier struggled manfully to his feet as Dempsey stood three paces away, poised with his right hand ready to finish the task. Carpentier rose with an effort.

Fall Shakes Ring
He had hardly straightened himself when Dempsey, with his jaws gritted together, his beard fairly bristling, a look of savage ferocity on his face, crashed his right again to the jaw after one minute and sixteen seconds. The Frenchman fell to the floor with a thud that rocked the ring. He was obviously out. The count was unnecessary.

Dempsey stood over him again, apparently unwilling to be fooled by a gong like he was in Toledo two years ago. He seemed to snap out of deep thought when Jack Kearns, his hair standing on end, his arms shaking like leaves, rushed to him and threw his arms around him.

Picks up Frenchman
Kearns tried to get the champion back to his corner, but Dempsey pushed him aside, leaned over and picked up Carpentier, holding him in his arms until the frantic Descamps climbed through the ropes and dragged the Frenchman to his corner. Carpentier was out for fully three minutes.

Even when he left the ring, nearly ten minutes after, he could not hold himself erect. He smiled when Dempsey approached him and shook hands with his left glove on the Frenchman's shoulder.

"Carpentier is a fine boy and gave me a tough fight. I am going home as soon as I can," Dempsey said to the press box.

Dempsey Disregards Defense
Dempsey won the fight with his terrific punches. He found out in the first round that he could take the vaunted right hand punches of the Frenchman and he waded in, fighting a typical Dempsey fight, pounding the Frenchman, absolutely disregarding his defense. Dempsey's punches were quite obviously tearing down the Frenchman.

In his corner after the first round, Carpentier recovered and came back in the second to fight a running battle. In the middle of the second round he got a staggering right flush to Dempsey's jaw. It rocked the champion up against the ropes and the crowd yelled like maniacs when Carpentier followed his advantage with rights and lefts to Dempsey's jaw.

The Frenchman, perhaps, lost the fight at this point. It was plain to see that he lost heart when he found himself lacking the punch to put the champion out when he was groggy.

Shakes off Blows
In the third round Carpentier continued his running fight. He tried several fancy steps and got away when Dempsey lacked him to the ropes. The third time Dempsey showed his speed and cracked Carpentier with a terrible left as he tried to get away. Carpentier was missing with his right. He was taking a desperate chance to win with one blow. Dempsey, with ever so slight a motion of his head would turn to the right and left and the blows of the Frenchman slid off the champion's wet head.

Carpentier landed two rights flush to Dempsey's jaw and the champion laughed. Dempsey retaliated with another cruel body punch. The Frenchman looked at the French section of the press box and smiled. He was bleeding from the eyes, his mouth was open and the blood was running from his cut lips. His left eye was closing rapidly. It was strikingly apparent then that he could not last much longer.

Sneers at Frenchman
Starting the fourth round Jack Kearns yelled from Dempsey's corner, "Go after him now, boy, you've got him."

Dempsey, wide open, sneering at the Frenchman, did go after him and knocked him out.

Dempsey was given a tremendous ovation. The hostility of the public toward him on account of his war record was expected to bring him per-

ROUND 3—Dempsey bored in, Carpentier dancing away. Dempsey landed right to head, but it was too high. Carpentier returned the compliment. Carpentier missed terrific right, then uppercut twice in the face and missed on a third attempt. In a clinch Dempsey pounded head and body with both hands. Carpentier missed another right and almost fell to the floor. Dempsey missed left hook to head and landed with same blow. Clinch. Both beat body. Dempsey pounded head with left and right, staggering Carpentier. Dempsey jabbed Carpentier's face. Clinch. Carpentier missed left and right to head. Clinch. On the break Carpentier danced away and again missed with both hands. He close, the pummeled without damage. Ten seconds before the bell Dempsey landed two lefts and two rights to the head that jarred the Frenchman. Dempsey's round. Carpentier seemed to be losing steam. His blows lacked force and he was visibly tiring. He missed frequently.

Round 4—Carpentier retreated. Dempsey caught him and pounded head and body with right and left, but could not find the mark. Dempsey uppercut with right to the face, but on the break Carpentier leaped in with right to head. Dempsey floored Carpentier with right to jaw. Dempsey landed right to jaw flooring Carpentier for a count of nine. When he arose Dempsey tore after him like a tiger and before the challenger was fairly set Dempsey chopped him on the jaw with another right and Carpentier went down for the full count.

While the referee stood over him telling off the seconds, Carpen-

OIL WELL MAY BE TIED UP FOR FISHING

With a gas blow out Wednesday night that did little damage and the loss of a drill collar and bit last night, the Westminster Oil company today was in trouble, with a fishing job on its hands.

It was stated today that the loss of the collar and bit may make it necessary for the company to start another hole. The hole is down 3150 feet. It is said that the size of the bit and its position will make its recovery rather difficult. If it is extracted, it will be by good luck, it is said.

Indications for an oil well are said to be most favorable. It is the opinion of Chief Driller Delaney that the company is on top of oil and that if the drill bit is recovered it will not be long until a producer will be brought in. Delaney's statement was said to have been made this morning to parties interested in the company.

Considerable mystery has surrounded the operations of the company for some time past, it is said. It is reported that more than usual secrecy has been maintained and that drilling operations have been at night only for some time past.

This is interpreted by Westminster people as indicating that the company has been expecting to uncover oil for several days, and that night operation was resorted to so as not to disclose success of the well.

The gas blowout Wednesday night did no particular damage to the drilling rig, according to reports today. The hole was "shot" some, it is said.

BAN ON MONEY DOES NOT EFFECT SHOPPERS

SAN DIEGO, July 2.—While the Mexican decree banning American currency in commercial transactions below the border has gone into effect, tourists going to Tia Juana need fear no inconveniences from too strict enforcement of this rule, officials of the consular office here declared.

The rule, they explained, applies to transactions on a commercial scale, and not to the small purchases which the ordinary tourist would make in the border town.

United Press Leased Wire
CHICAGO, July 2.—The majority of the two million railroad workers were held at bay today by conservative leadership.

Rail union leaders, meeting here to decide what action to take on the 12 per cent wage cut ordered by the United States railroad labor board, stood out against a walkout in spite of the fact that members of unions are overwhelmingly opposed to the wage slash.

Attitude of the rank and file is shown by unofficial counts of referendums taken among some unions and by statements of some leaders who sounded out their mood before they came to the conference.

In railroad circles today it was believed that the will of the leaders would prevail—that they would prevent a railroad crisis in spite of the $400,000,000 annual pay reduction.

Definite statement of the action of the leaders may come late today, but it is probable the conference may continue in to next week.

AVOCADO MAY GET BUREAU SECTION

The proposal to establish an avocado section in the Yorba Linda farm center has met with a great deal of success and the first meeting of the section will be held Tuesday night, July 5, at the Yorba Linda library.

At this time the plans of the organization will be perfected and a definite outline of the year's work be decided upon.

So much interest has been manifested not only by the growers but by those to whom the possibilities of this section as an avocado center, appeal that it may be decided to enlarge the section to a county department.

PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO SIGN PEACE BILL BEFORE NIGHT FALLS

RARITAN, N. J., July 2.—President Harding, who is spending the week-end at Senator Frelinghuysen's home here, is expected before night to sign the Knox-Porter resolution declaring peace between the United States and the central powers.

ABANDON BUSINESS TILL NEXT TUESDAY

"Business abandoned until Tuesday,"

Santa Ana posted this notice on its office door at noon today.

The nation-wide move from country to town or from town to country which has become characteristic of the celebration of Independence Day was ably aided, in part, by Santa Ana, this morning.

Many Santa Anans did not wait until today before departing for country or beach, but, locking their respective houses, they stole out of town last evening.

Automobiles loaded with camping equipment form an almost continuous cavalcade on the highways. Beach-clad individuals with suitcases and grips, crowd the street cars and stages bound for the seaside resorts.

Little girls, patriotically beribboned, clinging to mother's hand—or skirt, if mother is old-fashioned—beam upon the world, and regularly five times a minute ask "How long before we get there, mother dear? And please may I go in the water?"

Fathers are frantically searching for stray tickets, while son burns a hole in his new suit with a sputtering punk.

Beach hotels are filled to the last emergency bunk in the bathtub. One proprietor of a hotel at Laguna Beach said that his house was completely reserved by Fourth of July visitors as far back as last Monday. Inquiry at other hotels along the coast brings similar reports.

Those who failed to make their reservations in time will have choice of quarters between the hard sands of the beach or the slatted seats of the park benches.

But then nobody worries about such trifles with a holiday in view. Out in the country, holiday-makers, clothed in khaki or just old clothes, are building their own hotels by the simple expedient of stretching a piece of canvas over auto tops or a couple of boughs.

Fishing tackle was pulled out several hours ago, and father is down in the creek with his favorite pipe, which he is not allowed to smoke in the house, gripped between his teeth. Mother, with the assistance, well intentioned at least, of the children, has the fire down to glowing coals. Shortly father will return with a few small fish, and while mother drops them into the sizzling pan, he will entertain with stories of the big one that got away.

Then while the throng at the beach trip the light fantastic to the weird harmonies of a jazz orchestra, the parties in the woods will build a community campfire and probably while away the evening with songs, accompanied by mandolin and guitar.

Such are the extremes of the vacationists' plans who are leaving Santa Ana, today. All are out for a good time and each chooses the place where he is sure a good time is to be found.

"Business abandoned until Tuesday."

HIS TESTIMONY LANDS HIM IN COUNTY JAIL

Called as a witness in a probation hearing held before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams this morning, Henry Wallace, soda dispenser and drug clerk of La Habra, gave incriminating evidence which resulted in his own arrest and the probable arrest of his employer on a charge of selling intoxicating liquors.

Roy Keyes, 27, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Vern Hunt, 29, a Dakota farmer, were before the court with an application for probation. Both had pleaded guilty to driving automobiles while drunk. They stated that they bought three bottles of Jamaica ginger of Wallace, who waited on them in the La Habra drug store.

After granting both Keyes and Hunt probation, Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozley asked Wallace who was present in court if he had anything to say. He declared that he wanted to make a statement. Wallace then took the stand and did not attempt to conceal the fact that he had sold the two men the liquor.

Wallace not only admitted selling the Jamaica ginger but told Judge Williams just how much of the product was on hand in the La Habra drug store. A complaint was immediately issued and Wallace was arraigned in the justice court. His bail was fixed at $100 and it had not been raised at noon today.

Keyes and Hunt, who were granted probation, were instructed to keep themselves in touch with the district attorney's office so that they could be called as witnesses against Wallace.

When questioned as to how and why he happened to procure the intoxicating liquor Hunt said:

"I never pulled a stunt like that before and did not know that Jamaica ginger has a 94 per cent kick until I tried it."

CHEERS AS GEORGES OFF FOR FIGHT SCENE

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y., July 2.—To the cheering of a big crowd lining the shore and the tooting of boat whistles, Georges Carpentier sailed down Manhattan Bay today on the private yacht Lone Star, en route to Jersey City for his fight with Jack Dempsey.

There was such an immense throng assembled at Port Washington that plans for embarking at the dock here were abandoned. Carpentier's car went to a point on the shore, a short distance from Port Washington and he boarded the Lone Star there.

HOW WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Escape the Dreaded Sufferings of That Period by Taking Mrs. Block's Advice

Hopkins, Minn.—"During Change of Life I had hot flashes and suffered for two years. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper and got good results from taking it. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you may publish this fact as a testimonial."—Mrs. ROBERT BLOCK.

Box 542, Hopkins, Minn.

It has been said that not one woman in a thousand passes this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, sinking spells, spots before the eyes, dizzy spells, nervousness, are only a few of the symptoms. Every woman at this age should profit by Mrs. Block's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., about your health.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

The pleasures of the heart are gifts. Not so the pleasures of the mind—We have to work for them and so Once earned they're always ours.

City and County

Jose Rodriguez, arrested yesterday by Under Sheriff E. E. French on suspicion of growing and selling marijuana, was released when brought before Justice of the Peace Cox this morning. Rodriguez declared that the marijuana plant which the officers found in his front yard was growing when he moved into the place two months ago. The stalk apparently had been growing all winter. The authorities could not prove that Rodriguez had been selling the weed. Search of the Mexican quarter on Edinger street also was made for a Mexican woman who was alleged to have sold the weed. The investigation followed reports of a man and woman acting like raving maniacs on Edinger street night before last.

Charles Swanner, local attorney, narrowly escaped a serious accident early this morning while returning from Newport in his automobile. A front tire blew out while he was going about 30 miles per hour. He lost control of the machine for a moment and came near landing in the ditch.

The pop of the gasoline engine operating the concrete mixer of the Steele Finley paving equipment was cheerful music today to business men on Main street, between First and Fourth streets. Pouring of concrete was started this morning. It is expected that the paving work on these three blocks will be completed and the street thrown open to traffic about August 1.

Children who wish to join the supervised games at the playgrounds of the Roosevelt and McKinley schools beginning Tuesday, July 5, should be at the grounds when the morning or afternoon session begins. The morning session will be from 9 to 12 and the afternoon session from 2 to 5. Miss Cora Ritter and Mrs. Ella Maxwell will be the supervisors in charge.

F. C. Smith, 905 South Flower street, has reported to the police department that he lost a small black purse containing a check payable to G. W. Smith and about $1.40 in change.

During the absence of Secretaries G. C. Chessum and R. R. Miller of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Wilkie, Catalina Island, the offices on the third floor of the First National bank building will be closed and anyone wishing to communicate with Y officials may call Mrs. John A. Matson at 605 West Second street. Phone 385-W.

When Manuel Savalla, Mexican, appeared in Justice Cox's court this morning for pronouncement of judgment, Charles Swanner, attorney for the defendant, asked that the case be reopened. Judge Cox set the trial for July 13 at 2 o'clock. Savalla was charged with peeping into a window at the home of Luke Miller, 529 French street. Savalla was in court yesterday and Judge Cox found him guilty after hearing a review of the testimony of Miller and officer. It was the second time Savalla was in court for the same offense. He got a suspended sentence the first time.

AUTO DEALER IS SUING TO QUIT PARTNER

Alleging that his associate in business has refused to dissolve partnership and that he has overdrawn his account $3,000 with nothing invested, Alfred G. Miller, Santa Ana automobile dealer, has brought suit in the superior court here against Allan C. Monkhouse for a dissolution of their partnership.

Miller states he entered into the partnership with Monkhouse in November, 1919. He says that he invested $15,000 in the business while Monkhouse invested nothing. Miller asserts that the business has been unprofitable for the past twelve months and that for that reason he has sought to dissolve.

Miller also asks for a final settlement.

MEXICAN IS HELD IN NON-SUPPORT CASE

After making the admission in the justice court here that he had given his wife but $65 in the past seven months for the support of herself and their seven children, Dolores Alvalos, Mexican of the Delhi district, was bound over to the superior court by Justice of the Peace Cox for trial on a charge of non-support.

Dolores was brought into the justice court yesterday afternoon for the second time. About six weeks ago he was brought up for the same offense. At that time Justice Cox ordered him to give his wife $25 per month. He declared that he did not have steady work and could not give his wife more than $25.

Mrs. Milinda Alvalos, wife of the defendant, accused her husband of squandering his money on another woman. Alvalos declared in open court that if he were in Mexico he would throw his wife into the street. Numerous witnesses were heard, including a grocer of Delhi, who testified as to purchases made by both Alvalos and his wife. The Mexican is boarding at the home of a woman other than his wife. Mrs. Alvalos is attempting to get along on the allowance of $25 per month. According to her testimony this is impossible. Alvalos has been released on his own recognizance so that he may earn some money pending his hearing in the superior court.

Orange Co. Boy Scout Register

—DO A GOOD TURN DAILY—BE PREPARED—

E. E. Heidt, Scout Executive, Room 12, Register Building, Phone 1926

SANTA ANA SCOUTS DO SCOUT STUNTS

On Tuesday night scouts from the various Santa Ana troops went to Orange, where before the Masonic lodge, they gave a splendid demonstration in first aid, signalling, knot-tying, cheers and games.

Scout Bob White played the ukulele and sang a solo. Two of the scout council members, Guy J. Gilbert and Dr. Roy S. Horton, spoke to the lodge on scouting, its value to a community and what it means to boys.

The first part of the program was good, but from the scout viewpoint the after part was much better, for they were hustled back to Santa Ana and didn't stop until they reached the Dragon, where a gallon of ice cream and cup cakes were purchased by the executive and the boys were not long in getting on the outside of a splendid feed which was served in Troop 6 headquarters.

SANTA ANA NO. 7

Our last meeting was held in the scout room of the Congregational Church and Scoutmaster Leonard Baker taught us first aid and we practiced signalling.

The scoutmaster informed us that he would be absent from our next meeting and Mr. Heidt, scout executive, would be in charge. Mr. Baker is away on his vacation and enjoying a week's stay in the mountains with Mr. C. M. Rowland, treasurer of the scout council.

SANTA ANA NO. 6

At our last meeting Tuesday night we had just finished our opening exercises when several of our members were taken to Orange to take part in a scout demonstration before the Masonic lodge.

Those who remained were taken in charge by Assistant Scoutmaster C. Birtcher. New committees were appointed to keep flowers in the ladies' ward of the county jail for the month. A new committee coming month. A new committee coming month.

FANS BORED BY PRELIMINARIES TO BIG MILL

United Press Leased Wire RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, N. J. July 2.—The first preliminary started at 12:14 p. m. The contestants were Micky Delmont of Newark and Johnny Curtin of Jersey City, bantamweights.

The first preliminary boys in the ring were giving a good exhibition, but beyond an occasional yell from the rim of the saucer the crowd didn't seem to be paying much attention to them.

Meanwhile, Curtin and Delmont were milling around in the ring. Curtin was socking Delmont with long swings to the body and short pokes in the ribs. In the fifth round he rocked Delmont until he was groggy. Curtin outpointed him by a wide margin in the eighth rounds. There was no decision.

Start Second Prelim.
The first preliminary boys were hardly out of the ring when the second number went on.

It was eight rounds between Paddy O'Gatty of New York, and Veteran Frankie Burns of Jersey City, featherweights. Joe Humphries tried out the trick horn to announce the bout and made a mess of it. Jimmy DeForrest, who trained Jack Dempsey for his fight with Jess Willard, was the referee.

A few drops of rain started falling. It grew into a mist and threatened more. Practically every eye was turned upward to the skies for good signs. Heavy clouds were rolling up from the southeast.

At 1:30 the rain had ceased and the clouds were passing over. It was very sultry and the crowd began to pull off rain coats.

Burns knew too much for O'Gatty and won the popular decision.

The third session followed immediately.

Herman vs. Netranger.

Babe Herman, the bantam stablemate of Dempsey, came on with Joe Metranga of New Orleans for eight rounds.

Spectators apparently were not interested in anything but the main bout of the afternoon. Governor Edwards and his staff entered at 1:30. The state executive was given a great cheer when he appeared.

A big seaplane was flying over the stadium, taking pictures.

The crowd, which was being increased every minute by a steady stream down the aisles, showed its first interest in the ring when Babe Herman started knocking the New Orleans boy around the ring.

Looking up over the house from the ringside the crowd resembled a vine of faces covering acres and acres. Old-timers in the press box called at a packed house of 90,000, the largest in American boxing history.

FANS GROW RESTLESS
The people were getting restless and were standing up between rounds. The hum of voices completely drowned out the noise from the band. It was apparent from the puffed cheeks of the windjammers that they were trying to play. Other evidence was lacking.

When Metranga fell across the ring in the fifth round and hung helplessly on the ropes, Herman refused to hit him. He turned to the referee with a "stop it" and the official stepped between them just as a towel flew in from the New Orleans man's corner.

The fourth preliminary was supplied by Dick Griffin, Fort Worth, Tex., and Benny Cosler, New York bantamweights.

The sun popped out at 1:53, the heat seemed to pop out with it.

The crowd gave a yell after the rain had lost the second round of the afternoon.

Griffin and Cosler drew a laugh at the conclusion of the second round when they both went to wrong corners. Cosler was a bit groggy after stopping one to the chin and going down for the count of nine.

Handle Crowd Well
Finally at 2:15 it seemed that the crowd might be almost in. The aisles were thinning out for the first time, except at the main entrance, where the stream was steady. It was an exceptionally well handled crowd. Everyone seemed to find the proper seat without trouble and incidentally found it vacant. The coppers were standing around with nothing to do.

The fans filed into their seats and remained there.

Referee Earhart added to the comfort of the crowd when he stopped the Griffin-Cosler thing in the sixth round. Cosler was covering up on the ropes after going down twice. Earhart waved Cosler to his corner.

Gene Tunney, the light-heavyweight champion of the army, and Soldier Jones came on next. Danny Sullivan was the referee.

There didn't seem to be a great soldier element in the house when Tunney was introduced as the A. E. F. champion. There was not enough noise to be heard.

Will Challenge Winner
Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul, contender for the heavyweight championship, came to the ringside and announced that he would formally challenge the winner of the main bout.

Dempsey also sneaked into the arena without being observed by the fans who were having over the top rail watching for his arrival. There was not a sound among the spectators when he entered and walked down to his dressing room.

Both Dempsey and Carpentier entered a room underneath the bleachers and were hidden from view.

Referee Sullivan stopped the fifth preliminary to save Jones from further punishment. In the seventh round, Tunney hit him with everything he had all during the bout.

The fans were getting nervous just before time for the semi-windup. They stood up in their seats and refused to carry out the orders of Announcer Humphries to take their seats. Humphries announced that the Miske-Renault semi-windup would not go on, and that Dempsey and Carpentier would come on immediately.

Movie operators pitched their machines in the ring all hands mopped off the corners and an immense floral wreath with an inscription "Success" in red flowers was brought in to the ring for Dempsey.

The crowd rose and kept peering in the direction of the dressing rooms. Humphries kept yelling to "sit down" if they wanted to see the big bout, but they laughed at him.

Three airplanes flew around over the ring. They had very poor visibility for getting pictures as a haze blurred the ring. The ring was cluttered up with four movie machines and several still photographers who were getting "all set" to take their pictures without causing too much delay.

Carpentier Enters Ring
Robert Daugherty, chairman of the New Jersey boxing commission came to the ringside and gave a final inspection to the swinging seats in the corners.

Behind a flock of officers, led by a lieutenant, Carpentier preceded by his manager, Descamps, followed by Trainer Gus Wilson, entered the ring at 2:56.

He was given a great ovation. He turned in every direction, smiling at the immense throng and shook hands over his head. He wore a grey dressing gown and black borders. His hands were not taped.

The Frenchman sat in his corner, still smiling pleasantly. The photographers snapped him for several minutes.

Descamps walked to the east side of the ring, evidently recognizing a group of friends. Dempsey entered the ring at 2:59. With him were Jack Kearns, Teddy Hayes, carrying a towel covered bucket, and Joe Benjamin.

Battlers Shake Hands
Descamps and Carpentier shook hands. They both smiled at each other and said something in an undertone that could not be heard. Dempsey sat in his corner with a maroon sweater around his shoulders. He seemed to be very nervous and his face was colorless. His heart could be seen inside his chest.

Descamps came to Dempsey's corner and took but a casual glance at his opponent. Kearns went to Carpentier's corner and went through the same routine.

Referee Harry Ertle then entered the ring and posed back of Dempsey and Carpentier while they were filed shaking hands in the center of the ring.

Dempsey showed not a tremor as he stood. He had such a tight grip on the Frenchman's hand that it looked cramped and Carpentier looked at the grip several times.

The ring was partially cleared at 3:04. Carpentier was in his own corner looking all around while the entire group gathered in Dempsey's corner. Descamps was talking loudly in French, apparently making some objections about bandages.

Both Men Remove Tape.
One of Dempsey's hands, which was partially wrapped, was unwrapped under the watchful eye of the Frenchman's manager. Both Carpentier and Dempsey then split the thumb holes in the bandages and started the wrapping themselves.

Carpentier seemed as cool as a piece of ice. He looked over the house, still smiling and glanced several times at the airplanes overhead.

Descamps remained in Dempsey's corner and both Kearns and Benjamin went to Carpentier's corner. Kearns leaned on the ropes and happens the jeers and boos that he got when he beat Bill Brennan last winter.

Carpentier also got a great reception. He surely was a good loser. He smiled wanly at the crowd and walked rather dejectedly from the ring.

The vast crowd, estimated at more than 90,000 lingered in their seats, despite the threatening rain clouds, to see Billy Miske and Jack Renault, the Canadian sparring partner of Dempsey go through the eight-round bout of the semi-windup.

Billy Miske won the popular decision over Jack Renault in the second semi-windup which went the limit of eight rounds. It was a very tame affair, probably due to the fact that it was a sort of an anti-climax affair, after the sensational victory of Dempsey over Carpentier. More than half of the immense crowd remained to see the afternoon's program completed.

Brings Field Glasses
One man brought a pair of field glasses with him so that he could read the type-written bulletins from the far side of the street, but he needed no ear trumpet when the actual happenings in the ring were announced.

Until the extra appeared on the street a few minutes after the result of the fight was received, the telephone were buzzing with inquiries as to "Who won?"

When the question was answered some emitted a whoop, while others sighed, "Isn't that a shame?"

The Register believes in being up-to-date, and in this instance it feels it was distinctly "up-to-the-minute."

4,000 ACRES OF BLACKYES SIGNED

Over 4,000 acres of blackeye beans have been signed in the blackeye pool. This report was given at the meeting of blackeye bean growers at 10 p. m. last night. Indications are that 8,000 or 10,000 acres will eventually be in the pool.

W. C. Jerome, W. J. Cheney and John Osterman, the committee which has handled the pool the last three years, was reappointed for this season.

There was a good attendance at the meeting and there was considerable enthusiasm over this method of handling the crop. W. C. Jerome presided and W. J. Cheney acted as secretary.

severely punished a mouthful of chewing gum.

Mayor Hague of Jersey City and Chairman Daugherty of the boxing commission was introduced. Governor Edwards then came into the ring and was given a great ovation.

Dempsey Has 3-Day Beard
He shook hands with both Dempsey and Carpentier. Dempsey was regaining his composure. It seemed that he was getting collected.

A three days' growth of beard added to Dempsey's hostile appearance. He smiled only occasionally and seldom looked up from the floor in front of him.

Chairman Daugherty brought the gloves into the ring tied up in a big box. The gloves were wrapped separately in pairs.

Gus Wilson came rushing across to Descamps in Dempsey's corner with two pairs, apparently seeking his advice on which pair to use.

Descamps shrugged his shoulders and in English said: "Oh, any pair."

Weights Announced
Carpentier's weight was announced as 172 pounds and Dempsey's as 183.

Descamps stayed right in Dempsey's corner and watched every move that Teddy Hayes made in fitting the gloves on the champion. Dempsey not once looked at him and said nothing, even to Hayes.

Tex Rickard was introduced, shook hands with the principals, the ring was cleared at 3:13 with the exception of the seconds.

Carpentier was being fanned by Marcel Dennys, one of his seconds.

The gaunt looking Bernie Dempsey stood in Carpentier's corner, just looking on.

Joe Humphries started the formal introductions with the announcement that it would be a 12 round no-decision affair and then presented Dempsey.

Dempsey was given a good reception. There were no boos and none of the feared hisses. Sentiment of the spectators, however, was made evident when Carpentier was introduced.

Big Cheer For Carpentier
He was presented as a "soldier of France" and the crowd yelled and yelled. They waved hats all over the vast house.

They came to the center of the ring for final instructions from the referee. Kearns was plucking Dempsey's back and Descamps was walking around Carpentier like an old mother hen looking him over.

The bell rang at 3:18 1-2.

ONE RESIDENT ONLY ASKS FOR ADVICE

Are the homes of Santa Ana unusually free of fire hazards or are the people indifferent to conditions that menace their homes from the standpoint of possible loss by fire?

This is a question John Luxembourg, fire chief, was asking today.

The fire department has volunteered services of members in inspection of homes for fire risks evident in each home but unrecognized by the average householder.

Only one resident has requested that inspection be made, and that one request came from a woman, Mrs. Porter, at 1047 West Pine.

The fire chief inspected the house yesterday. It is a comparatively new residence.

He found the premises about the house in ideal condition and nothing in the residence that he could criticize as a fire risk, except breaks in electric drop cords at the sockets.

Some of these were broken and attempt had been made to repair them by tying the breaks with string.

A broken drop cord is a source of possible fire, by reason of the insulation being liable to catch on fire from the broken strands.

Once on fire burning pieces drop to the floor, with possibility of setting a carpet on fire if the floor is covered with a carpet.

"I am surprised that more people have not asked for inspection of their homes, following announcement that the department is ready to send an inspector out at any time to point out possible sources of fire," said Luxembourg today.

"I am satisfied that many homes in this city have fire exposures that the owners do not recognize. It is probable the people are indifferent and not sufficiently interested in having these pointed out to take the trouble to call up the department."

WILL DEMONSTRATE GRADING OF SPUDS

A potato grading demonstration has been announced to be held at the ranch of Edward Long one-half mile east of Stanton, on Wednesday afternoon, July 6 at 2 o'clock.

While Orange county is not primarily a potato growing section, yet it was stated at the farm bureau office that so many requests for such a demonstration had followed the recent potato grower's excursion that the farm bureau decided to hold the affair.

H. Truax, of Los Angeles, standardization agent for the U. S. department of agriculture, will be present to explain the various United States grades on potatoes.

TAKE REALTY DEAL INTO LOCAL COURT

Hoffman, Smith and Holcombe, local real estate brokers, are named as defendants in a suit on file today in the superior court. The action is for $2,000 damages and is brought by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gedney of Baldwin Park and formerly of Garden Grove. W. F. Menton is attorney for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Montgomery Launches New Ebell Unit With Delightful Luncheon

Mrs. Victor Montgomery was the gracious hostess, yesterday, at a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon given at her home on North Main street in honor of the members of the recently organized "Past Presidents' club" of the Ebell.

A preliminary meeting of this club was held at St. Ann's Inn at the time of the Ebell luncheon in March, when Mrs. Montgomery was elected president. The organization was completed yesterday by the adoption of by-laws and the election of two other officers—Mrs. J. W. Bishop, vice-president, and Mrs. E. M. Nealey, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Montgomery was charmingly assisted by her daughters, the Misses Gertrude and Louise—in receiving her guests who were:

Mrs. John Clarkson, J. E. Gowen, C. F. Crose, A. P. Lawton, S. W. Nau, A. J. Criswell, E. M. Nealey, S. M. Davis and J. W. Bishop.

Much regret was expressed at the absence of Ebell's founder, Mrs. W. S. Bartlett, of Los Angeles, and of Mrs. W. L. Grubb, who were unable to be present on account of illness, and of Mrs. E. D. Buss, of Bakersfield, who was prevented from attending by distance.

Freak Baseball Game Features Lodge Meet

The Fraternal Aid Union members were well paid for their time spent at the meeting last night.

After the regular business had been disposed of, Mr. R. P. Mitchell having charge of the evening's entertainment, gave the members a surprise in the way of beautiful gifts to those who were the fortunate ones to receive them. Mrs. Warren won the first prize of forget-me-nots, and Mr. J. Wiley Harris was presented with a musical selection, "A Reward Will be Yours some Day."

After remarks had been made in acceptance of these gifts, Mr. Mitchell's program was given.

A baseball team of Babe Ruth followers on one side and Frank Harris invincibles on the other was the feature.

Harris' team were beaten to the tune of 14 to 3. It was learned later in the evening that J. Wiley Harris had been seen during the game passing money over to several of the players on his brother's team, and the game will be contested on the grounds that the players had sold the game.

Mrs. John Baker gave interesting talks during the evening. Mr. J. Armstrong gave a beautiful musical selection, "Sweet Repose." Great credit reflects upon Mr. Mitchell for the manner in which he handled the evening's program.

The hall was decorated with roses and ferns, which was also some of Mr. Mitchell's good work.

He has a knack of arranging flowers that seems to be natural with him. This was demonstrated in the banquet hall as the members found their places. Dainty refreshments were served, followed by after-dinner speeches by many of the members. It was voted one of the best meetings the lodge has had this year.

The committee in charge were: R. P. Mitchell and Mesdames Warren, A. Patterson, and J. Wiley Harris.

Ship Ahoy! Everything Doing All Week-end At Newport Yacht Club

The little camaraderie ditty, "For we are all jolly good fellows" will in no way entirely typify the wonderful week-end program that has been arranged to take place in and about the Newport Harbor Yacht Club.

This afternoon all the water craft will compete in a race for the Orange county trophy. The Balboa Newport course will be the course. Tomorrow open-house will be held at the club, but there has been no specified program arranged.

On Monday the fun will start bright and early at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, when the boat owners will assemble at the club to confer with the commodore for orders for the parade, which will begin at 12 o'clock. Every ship is expected to be at its best and there will be no doubt but that they will be according to the vigorous "holystoning" the decks have been receiving the last week, in addition to the shining up of every nook and cranny of the craft.

The boats will parade through the bay outside the pier and return. At two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon the boats will anchor in formation in the lower bay where a water carnival will be staged.

A special dinner will be served in the club dining room from 5 to 8 o'clock, and the club is preparing for at least 250 hungry folk, and offers the suggestion, "early come, early served."

At 7:45 the "monster, spectacular, scintillating, magnificent fireworks display" that the club promises, will be pulled off in the bay opposite the club porch.

And last, but not least, comes the hall at 8:30 o'clock at which at least 200 couples are expected.

At 7:45 the "monster, spectacular, scintillating, magnificent fireworks display" that the club promises, will be pulled off in the bay opposite the club porch.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming;

And the rockets' red glare, and the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand Between their loved home and a wild war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Plans for a Wonderful Golden Wedding Fete Are Completed

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip J. Spencer, 720 West Second street, who will soon reach their fiftieth year of conjugal bliss, will be guests of honor at a reception and entertainment at the G. A. R. Hall on Tuesday evening.

The members of the Santa Ana Post, G. A. R., Relief Corps and the Sedgwick social club will be hosts and hostesses and they are planning a royal good time in honor of these dear friends.

An old-fashioned wedding party, with highly entertaining features promises to make the evening a joy to everyone and a happy memory that will long be cherished by those who participate.

BUENA PARK, July 2.—Saturday night at the parsonage in Buena Park, John Andrews and Gertrude Schryer were united in marriage. A few friends were present.

Sunday afternoon, at the parsonage, was held another wedding, of which Ellis Smith and May Counts were the principal characters. Some young people attended them.

George Knight and Miss Bertha Knight, father and sister of the Rev. C. L. Knight, are visiting at the parsonage. They arrived from England Friday, June 17.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Schofield, with son and daughter, Lester and Florence, motored to Long Beach Sunday afternoon, where they visited Mr. Schofield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Schofield.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Horn and family enjoyed a pleasant day on the sand at Long Beach Sunday.

Miss Florence Schofield is working in an orange packing house at Fullerton.

Miss Florence Robinson is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis. There was another show Friday night at the school hall entitled "Billy Apperson's Boy," a Jack Pickford picture. The program had a brief addition.

Ed Thurman spent the week-end at the parental home.

Church Notice
Buena Park Congregational church, July 3, Morning service at 11 a. m.; subject, "Honor Thy Parents." There will be communion service. The evening service will be held in the school hall. A moving picture film will be given entitled "A Call to Arms." This picture is an impersonation of Abraham Lincoln by Benjamin Chapin. There will be a brief patriotic address. Service will begin at 7:45 a. m.

The Woman's club will hold their last meeting before the summer vacation at the home of Mrs. Caday on West Orangethorpe Thursday afternoon.

Miss Ethel McNeal is at home for the summer. She has been attending Pomona college the past year. Bobby Ritter is recovering from an attack of measles.

Mrs. McNease and two daughters, Grace and Muriel, of Ft. Collins, Colo., visited at the home of Dr.

Vacation Bible School Promises To Be Very Popular Here

School was supposed to have ended the early part of June, and now comes the announcement that it will begin again Tuesday. But it isn't going to be one of the "Three R's" kind, but one that is full of interesting things to girls and boys, and will be play instead of hum-drum real school.

This "play" school is to be held in the First Methodist church, beginning Tuesday at 9 o'clock and will continue each morning except Saturdays until noon.

The school is being fostered by the First Presbyterian, United Presbyterian and First Methodist churches all of which extend a hearty invitation to every girl and boy between the ages of five and fourteen years to come and see what it is all about.

There will be courses in woodwork, hammock making, basketry and sewing, in addition to the splendid music and bible story courses. A feature of the bible story department will be the dramatization of the stories, which will be just lots of fun.

A kindergarten school will be held in the Richland avenue Methodist church for those kiddies who live out that way and cannot come in to the First Methodist church.

Miss Evelyn Gledhill is principal of the kindergarten. Miss Stella Anderson will be in charge of the basketry, Miss McDermott, sewing, and Miss Mary Coffman, the kindergarten work.

GREGG ASSERTS FIRST NUMBER OF CARE NEEDED IN CHARITY OIL PAPER ISSUED

The advisability of having charity distributed under supervision of some sort is emphasized in a letter received by The Register today from County Aid Commissioner W. S. Gregg.

The letter was written by Gregg as the result of an appeal having been published in The Register on Thursday for funds for the aid of Mr. and Mrs. John Arrouque, an aged couple.

The letter reads as follows: "Editor, Register:—Upon reading Mr. Allen's article on the Arrouque family, I wish to correct, if possible, any impression there may be that the aid commissioner's office is as lax as it appears by reading the article in question.

"This family was placed on the county list in February, 1918, because the two sons of a niece of the old couple were called in the army. Since their return the niece moved to Los Angeles and said nothing further until I was requested to find them new quarters because of the razing of their present home.

"Any person should know that $12 will not keep a family but when that was all that was asked for, why should they be furnished more? I know that they have been receiving supplementary aid through friends and relatives.

"Should this office attempt to find homes for families it would be necessary to allow me an assistant for that duty alone and so I told the niece who asked me to find them new quarters.

"It would be of interest to some of the public-spirited citizens were they able to listen for a day to the variety of troubles and requests for help that range through this office or the County Welfare department at 111 East Third street, where Mrs. Lee-Brick is in charge.

"In raising a subscription for this or any other family, might I suggest that such sums be deposited in a bank or elsewhere subject to a monthly withdrawal rather than place the whole amount at the family's disposal and then forget them. One county case in particular received $100 cash in the morning and before the welfare superintendent could locate her, she had expended $90 for a baby buggy and fixings and $10 for eats. Therefore my suggestion that in similar cases a monthly stipend is more beneficial.

The county has done its duty to the best of its ability. Very respectfully,

"W. S. GREGG, County Aid Commissioner."

BIG CROWD EATING AT BARBECUE TODAY

A number of county and city officers and some of the executives of the First National bank were planning to leave at noon today to attend the big community picnic in the mission valley at San Juan Capistrano.

Interest in the picnic arranged by the San Juan Capistrano farm center, had spread to all the farm centers of the county and as the noon hour neared, an unusual crowd had gathered for the big barbecue and the afternoon program of sports.

H. E. Wahlberg, farm advisor of Orange county, is scheduled to be one of the speakers on the afternoon program as was Bob Ralston, assistant state leader of Agricultural clubs. A dance is programmed for tonight.

PASTOR AND FAMILY READY FOR VACATION

Tomorrow will mark the last appearance of the Rev. Otto S. Russell in the pulpit of the First Baptist church for a period of four weeks, for on Monday, he with Mrs. Russell and their daughter Virginia plan to leave for a month's vacation in the region around Lake Tahoe.

Ever since a visit to that section three years ago, the Rev. Mr. Russell has cherished a desire to return for a longer period as he considers it the most beautiful part of California.

During his absence from the pulpit, arrangements will be made for splendid supply ministers, among them being the Rev. Mr. Davies, secretary of the promotion board of the Baptist church and former pastor of the local church, who will address the congregation at both morning and evening services on Sunday, August 7.

ASSESSMENT OF COUNTY TO BE RAISED BELIEVE ATTEMPT MADE AT BURGLARY

Several million dollars will be added to the total of the county's assessment roll.

This prediction is freely made at the courthouse, though County Assessor James Sleeper will not have his total assessment for 1921 completed until Tuesday, on which day the 1921 rolls will be turned over to the board of supervisors, which will sit for two weeks as a board of equalization.

The assessment values are fixed upon a basis of how they stood at noon on the first Monday in March of this year.

The greatest share of the increase in the assessment comes from an increase in oil property values.

Any taxpayer who objects to the assessment fixed for him by the assessor's office has the right to appear before the board of equalization and enter a protest. A hearing upon each written protest will be held, testimony taken and a ruling entered for or against the protestant. In this way the figures fixed upon a piece of property by the assessor can be changed.

In the years that Sleeper has been assessor protests have been few in number and changes by the board of equalization probably could be counted on the fingers of one hand.

Next to the telephone message and the wireless comes the Want Ad—The Efficiency Unit of the modern newspaper.

Upon receipt of a telephone call from Miss Hazel Shields, 1416 North Main street, City Marshal Samuel Jernigan and Motorcycle Officer Frank Stewart, late yesterday evening, investigated what is believed to be an attempted robbery of the A. C. Bowers home at 1401 North Main street, on the opposite side of the street from the Shields' home.

Miss Shields stated that she saw two Mexicans ride up to the Bowers' residence on bicycles. While one kept watch on the street the other walked about the house and peered into one or two windows. Miss Shields was watching the men from her home on the opposite side of the street.

The Bowers family was at home at the time but not aware of the fact that the Mexican was prowling about the yard. The authorities believe that a robbery was contemplated but when the Mexican discovered the presence of the family he changed his mind. The two left before the officers arrived.

CALIFORNIA COTTON ACREAGE IS 131,000

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The condition of the 1921 cotton crop on June 25, was 69.2 per cent, the department of agriculture announced. The total acreage planted to cotton was given as 26,518,000 acres or 10,524,000 less compared with last year. The condition last year was 66 per cent. The estimated yield was 8,433,000 bales as compared with 13,365,754 bales.

The acreage of California was 131,000.

GO TO CHURCH. "Mr. Citizen, honestly now, do we not need a re-standardizing of our liberty and freedom on their spiritual foundations? A formal acceptance of Christianity will never save us from moral deterioration. It is up to you, Mr. Citizen, to make your church and its teaching a vitalizing force in the recovery civilization. We have had enough of the teaching of the JUNGLE with its super-brute man. We need more of the teaching and preaching that dignifies man in his God given birth and destiny. We need more Christ-likeness in our citizenship to make our nation more truly noble and Christian. Go to church and try to re-vision again the reality of moral citizenship. We have a great inheritance, and it can be saved through spiritual loyalty. GO TO CHURCH.

PICNIC AT PARK MARKS ANNUAL HOME-COMING

WINTERSBURG & SMELTZER. July 2.—The annual reunion and picnic of the Farrar family, some of whom live here, was held on last Saturday, June 25, at Griffith park, Los Angeles, with forty-six of the clan present to enjoy in full the pleasures of the day.

It has been a yearly custom to hold this event and until last year private homes had been the scenes of these delightful gatherings. At each reunion additional families, who have migrated to California have been in attendance, so it was decided to make the event a picnic to be held in June when weather conditions were sure to add to the pleasure of the occasion and this custom is expected to hold good for the future.

The dinner served last Saturday was beyond compare and three servings of ice cream were enjoyed during the day and late evening at which time the happy crowd dispersed.

Lee Farrar proved a splendid toast master and almost every one present responded with a few appropriate words. The election of officers was held with the following result:

President, J. L. Farrar; secretary, Miss Viola Farrar; treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Bell.

A committee was appointed also to arrange for the 1922 reunion and to decide where it will be held.

Various sports and amusements during the afternoon won trophies awarded the winners.

The relatives attending the reunion from the greatest distance were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith and daughter Frances, of Denver, Colorado, and the others present, in order of mileage were:

John Farrar, Oak, Calif.; Mrs. Ollie Farrar, son, Laurette and daughter, Eva Lois, of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Farrar and son John, of Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. Claud Traxler and children of Owensmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Farrar and children, Keith and Maxine, of Huntington Beach; Mr. and Mrs. A. Farrar, of Wintersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Farrar, Hemet; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Mitchell, Pomona; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Imman, son, Fred, and daughter, Emma, of Norwalk, who were accompanied by their house guest, Miss De Shields, of Fresno; Mrs. Jane Farrar and daughter, Miss Viola; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrar and son Billie; Mr. and Mrs. James Farrar and children, Buddy and Jane of Burbank; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Farrar; Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Pine and son, Herbert; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bennett and daughter, Laura, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Farrar motored to Los Angeles Saturday morning to be present at the big affair, returning home the same evening.

Tank Station. The Standard Oil company, which corporation recently purchased thirty acres of land southwest of Wintersburg on which to make a tank station, has finished leveling the land and has a large quantity of sand and gravel on the site to be used in the foundations for the tanks.

The house on the ranch has been moved from its former location to the southwest corner of the ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Gotthard, upon giving possession, moved to the Preston ranch near by, where they are now cozily domiciled.

Los Patos was the scene of a delightful gruyon party lately when a number of local people and their friends spent several hours fishing and enjoying a social time. A light lunch of doughnuts, sandwiches and coffee was served during the evening. Some fish were captured by the crowd which included:

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodington and son, Donald; Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, and daughters, Edna and Helen; Mr. and Mrs. J. Grana, Peter, Bessie and Angie Grana; Mr. and Mrs. A. Gillispie and son; Mrs. Drumm; Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley, of Fullerton; William Howells and Roscoe Knight of Huntington Beach, and two friends from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Drum and two small boys left Wednesday on a motor trip to Santa Barbara to visit relatives. A four days' vacation was secured by Mr. Drum at this time as the which he is employed had just been cemented off.

A pleasant ice cream party was given on Wednesday afternoon at the Harry Woodington home, when Mrs. Woodington invited a few friends in honor of her son, Donald's birthday anniversary. Delicious cakes were served with the cream.

The guests were: Mrs. E. R. Bradbury, son, Roscoe and daughters, Maxine and Phyllis, and Mrs. Fern Hall and baby, Peter Grana and Bessie Grana.

A painful accident was sustained by Bessie Grana, which greatly dampened the spirits of the party. In some manner one of the fingers of her right hand became entangled in the cogs of the ice cream freezer and the nail was torn entirely off and the finger split for quite a distance. She was given first aid treatment at once and it was thought that by tightly binding the wound stitches may be averted.

Paul Christy, of Pasadena, and a late arrival from Kansas, spent two days as the guest of Samuel Wilson at the G. M. Roberson home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Maddux and son, Albert, and their nephews, the Misses Winifred and Ruth House, of Oxnard, left here Tuesday morning on a camping trip to the mountains where they expected to fish for trout. The party will return Friday, and during their absence their son, Jim

HEALTH CENTER
WORK IS STARTED

PLACENTIA, July 2.—Dr. Bigby of Los Angeles has been in Placentia examining children up to the age of fourteen and giving parents advice as to their care. This is a beginning of the work of the Placentia Health Center and an enlargement of the work carried on for the past year and a half by the Child Welfare society.

These examinations are made by appointment only, and Dr. Gage, of Placentia, urges all who are in need of help to call upon her at the Presbyterian parish house.

Things Worth Knowing
About Orange County

Those of us who live in Orange county live in the great outdoors the year around.

Mountains and seashore, rugged canyons and broken coast, shaded nooks and sandy coves, surging brooks and the gentle undulations of a shimmering sea—all of these are ours.

Opportunities for recreation are on every hand. And a wide range of choice lies within the daily command of the resident of Orange county. It is no day's journey nor week's travel to the land of heart's desire for the tired business man or farmer who wants to take a day off or an evening where there is a change in scenery. Twenty minutes' ride in your automobile or in an automobile stage takes you to the beach for a dip or a sun-bath.

Here in Orange county everybody or his friend has an automobile. Holidays and Sunday afternoons are favorite times for riding to favorite points for outings and picnics. Of the fifty-two Sundays in the year, there will be fifty that present pleasant weather—weather that prompts one to get out-of-doors into God's blessed sunshine and pure air.

"But," one may ask, "when it comes to recreational opportunities in what way has the resident of Orange county any advantage over the residents of any other county of the state?"

The answer is: "In its nearness to a wide variety of points of interest; in its proximity to seashore and mountains; in its system of paved roads that lead to any number of places to which a resident or visitor might want to go; in its numberless spots of unusual beauty."

Let one who is unfamiliar with the topography of Orange county study its map for a few minutes. He will see that considering distance and traffic conditions generally, very few if any cities or sections have advantages equal to those enjoyed by the people of Orange county. Geographical location gives this advantage to Orange county, and in every-day living it is an advantage of real consequence.

CHURCH BAZAAR ACTIVITIES
UNDER WAY

GARDEN GROVE, July 2.—The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Nelson Cook Wednesday. The morning was spent in sewing carpet rags for rugs and making articles for the bazaar to be held this fall. At the noon hour a cafeteria luncheon provided by the ladies was served. In the afternoon a short business session was held.

There was a good attendance. The next meeting will be held the last Wednesday in July at the home of Mrs. Harvey Newsom.

Three loads of lumber have been moved onto the Parmalee ranch west of town and work on the California-Oregon derrick will commence right away.

Charles Lake, Coleman Hickey, Robert Chaffee, Emory Crist and Emerson Beardsley left Thursday with the Orange County V. M. C. A. boys for Camp Winkle. H. A. Lake and J. A. Knapp drove the boys to San Pedro.

A movement is well underway for securing a capable county demonstrator from Berkeley, whose duties will be to visit the various farm bureau districts in the county giving practical instructions and advice relative to conservation of fruits and vegetables, domestic science and other important work of interest to the women of the county. Mrs. Amos of Alamitos, Mrs. E. R. Stillens of Buaro and Mrs. C. C. Violett are the committee from this district, of which Mrs. Violett is chairman. This district extends from the river to Stanton and from holes to Katella.

The committee will meet the supervisors the 15th of this month at which time the proposition will be submitted and definite action taken.

Birthday Dinner. Mrs. Effie Jessup was honored with a birthday dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jessup, Sunday. The following guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Trickey, of Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reight, of Orange, Walter Terozzi and Mrs. Mettie Johnson, of Garden Grove.

The Rev. F. A. Ames, who has been attending the Free Methodist conference in Los Angeles, reports good meetings and many conversions and sanctified. He has been returned to Garden Grove for another year.

George Hedstrom is attending summer school at the U. S. C.

Miss Emma Paul, of Oregon, visited with Miss Dorcas Jacques Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tourant and daughters, Georgia, Stella and Grace, and son, Leigh, left Wednesday for a two weeks' visit with their son, Waldo, and wife at Santa Rosa.

Mesdames F. K. Kelsey, Walter Bastian, C. C. Violett, S. Horowitz and George Reyburn and Miss Mabel Woodworth attended a garden party given by the Ebell club at Tustin Monday afternoon.

A. D. Hoenshel of Orange, who will be the principal of the Garden Grove high school which will open this fall, has leased Mrs. Vienna Donelson's house on Stanford, Mrs. Donelson will return to Sulphur Springs, Ark., in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Cranston Tyler accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. V. Adams of Santa Ana, motored to Balboa beach Sunday.

Mrs. Fuller and six children, who recently arrived in California from Philadelphia, came to Garden Grove Thursday and are living in the Bradley home. Fuller will arrive here as soon as his business matters can be closed up in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harper and Mark Harper were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marshall in Los Angeles Sunday.

Dr. Bell Brate, of Hamilton county, Ohio, who has been visiting Mrs. Lulu Jones and sister, Miss Coeman, for the past three weeks, will sail from San Francisco July 20 to tour the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winters and family, Mrs. M. A. Winters and mother, Mrs. M. J. Newman and brother, C. E. Newman, visited Mrs. A. L. Griffin at Pasadena recently.

MISSIONARY BODY ELECTS OFFICERS

ORANGE, July 2.—The attendance affected somewhat by vacation time, twenty-two members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church met in regular meeting in the church parlors.

Election of officers for the ensuing year was the most important matter before the body, and resulted in the installation of the following:

Miss Mabel Thornburg, president; Mrs. Kingman, vice president; Mrs. William Hall, recording secretary; Mrs. F. Palmer, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Jeffrey, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Berger, mite box; Mrs. Hemphill, literature; Mrs. Frost, temperance; Mrs. W. E. Gorton, evangelism; Mrs. H. Gorton, programs; Mrs. H. Gorton, study books; Miss Lulu Thornburg, hospital work; Miss Leah Fernald, Miss Mae Kimball, Frances de Pauw and Mrs. Warwick, La Verne children's home.

Appointments are to be made for the Yuma Indian, Esther Home for Girls and Deaconess work.

The meeting was an interesting one and was enlivened by a musical treat supplied by the Misses Velma and Ruth Benson. The former performed on the violin and the latter accompanied on the piano. Miss Leah Hyle also added to the pleasure of the afternoon with two well-rendered piano solos.

Sound Public Utilities

To Yield Better Than 7% Interest

Many men and women will have $500, $1,000, or more to invest within the next few days. Why not put your funds into the safe, well protected and high yield bonds of some of our long established California Public Service Corporations?

We say "safe," because such bonds have behind them the proper physical securities, large capital, good earnings, a growing business, in growing communities, in a growing State.

We say "protected," because such bonds have to pass the scrutiny of the State Railroad Commission. The corporations issuing them are subject to commission rulings—protected by fair rates for their service and product, rates fair to the Public and to the Corporation alike.

We direct your attention to two such Public Utility Bonds:

San Diego Consolidated Gas & Electric Co.

First and Refunding 6% Gold Bonds due 1939, purchasable at 87 and interest to pay you 7.30% interest.

Los Angeles Gas & Electric Co. General Refunding Mortgage 7% Gold Bonds "Series B" due 1931, purchasable at 97½ and interest to pay you over 7.35% interest.

These bonds qualify as legal investments for California Savings Banks and application has been made to have them so certified. This means that they comply with the rigid requirements scrupulously designed to protect Savings Banks from loss—evidence of the high character of the securities.

DEFINITE TERM OF 50 YEARS GIVEN HIM

Fifty years in the state's prison at San Quentin is the sentence fixed by the state board of prison directors in the case of Mike Crespinio, who was sent to San Quentin from this county last November. Crespinio pleaded guilty in the superior court to having committed a statutory offense against a young woman at Anaheim.

When he entered the prison gates at San Quentin Crespinio gave his age as 21. He will be an old man when he is given his freedom, provided, of course, that he does not die in prison. Superior Judge West gave Crespinio an indeterminate sentence of from one to fifty years. It was then up to the prison board to fix a definite term.

And Mike Crespinio soon will be joined by his brother, Emil, who now is in the county jail pending his arraignment in the superior court, where, it is stated, he will enter a plea of guilty.

Emil was given a preliminary hearing in the justice court Thursday afternoon and bound over. His bail being fixed at $5000 cash. The woman whom he attacked on an Anaheim street fainted three times during the hearing, she having appeared in court as the complaining witness.

Three other prisoners confined in San Quentin and sent up from Orange county have had their sentences fixed indefinitely.

Samuel A. Perkins, convicted of a statutory offense here in January, 1920, is to serve twenty-five years.

Frank Bagley was convicted of perjury in swearing to the age of a girl whom he married here. He is said to have dressed her up so that she had the appearance of a middle-aged woman, when as a matter of fact she was only 15 years old. Bagley arrived at San Quentin in May, 1920. He will serve a sentence of three years.

Bernice Stangland, convicted of forgery in May, 1920, is to serve a sentence of three years.

VIOLATION CHARGE IS NOT SUSTAINED

After being transferred here from Bakersfield, where he spent 60 days in jail without a trial, John Sharpe, 22, today appeared before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams, who sought to determine whether or not Sharpe had violated the terms of his probation order granted by Judge Williams about two months ago. The decision was in Sharpe's favor.

Sharpe was accompanied in court by his pretty young wife who has been patiently waiting for him to clear himself of a series of check charges that have been hanging fire in three counties.

The district attorney's office here sought a court order terminating Sharpe's term of probation, but after hearing testimony of the defendant Judge Williams denied the petition of the district attorney and released Sharpe, subject to any warrants that might be held against him.

Judge Williams scored the Kern county authorities for keeping Sharpe in jail 60 days without a trial and stated that it was apparent that they did not have a strong case against him. It is understood that he was sent back here for the Orange county officers to determine whether he had violated his probation.

While Judge Williams was not entirely satisfied with Sharpe's explanation of the charges against him he said he had no direct evidence on which he could hold him.
He dismissed him with a warning.
It is understood that the Los Angeles authorities have been seeking Sharpe but investigation revealed that they did not have sufficient evidence to make a case against him.

BUENA PARK VOTES DOWN LAND OFFER

BUENA PARK, July 2.—Proposed purchase for $16,000 of 6½ acres of orange groves, containing a house, adjacent to the present schoolhouse and which would have been used for additional classrooms, was voted down at the election held here yesterday. The vote was 78 yes and 70 no, of 200 registered voters in the school district.

Some provision must be made for extra classrooms to handle the enlarged enrollment of pupils this coming term, is the belief here. Probably portable buildings will be used.

The present school grounds have a frontage on the boulevard of 295 feet and a depth of 365 feet. The building is old of two-story structure, containing four classrooms.

The building was condemned several years ago. The upper boor was declared to be unsafe.

Five teachers have been employed for next year, and a sixth teacher will be appointed for the kindergarten, petition for which has over the requisite number of 25 parents in order to make it effective.

FAILS TO HOLD BURGLARS IN CELLAR

Fitzhugh Gray, 18, sat on a cellar door last night and tried to hold three young burglars in captivity.

He didn't weigh enough.
Three burglars shoving desperatly upward on a cellar door gave Gray an air journey that landed him on the ground with the door on top of him.

The three young men broke into the basement of the Padgham apartments, at the corner of Ninth and Bush streets. Today they are on leaving to dodge police officers who have them under suspicion.

The attempted burglary occurred about 10:30 o'clock last night. Fitzhugh Gray, grandson of Mrs. W. R.
Edwards, a tenant of the Padgham apartments, heard voices at the rear of the place. Upon investigation he saw three young men lift a screen door from its hinges and enter the basement compartment of George Shattuck.

Gray attempted to trap the burglar trio by replacing the screen over the cellar door. The burglars were quick to realize that they had been detected and all three made a dash for liberty. Their only means of exit was through the door which they had just entered.

Gray attempted to hold the screen door over the cellar entrance but the three men combined their efforts in opposition to him. Gray was thrown to the ground with the door on top of him and before he could pick himself up the burglar trio fled into the street and disappeared.

George Shattuck today stated that this is the second time burglars have attempted to rob his cellar.

Shattuck suggested that if the burglars were seeking a fluid not now legally distributed, they were doomed to disappointment and might as well give up their efforts.

"There is none of that kind of goods stored there," said he.
A report was made to the police department last night and Officer Murray investigated. No trace could be found of the burglars.

TRAILS DAUGHTER WHO WEDS AT 15

Arriving in Santa Ana before daylight on the trail of her daughter, Rose, who yesterday married Socorro Gutierrez, Mexican, Mrs. Josephine Tinker, 123 Laurel street, Compton, enlisted the aid of the police department at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

The moment the district attorney's office was open Mrs. Tinker procured a complaint charging her daughter and Gutierrez with perjury in making a false affidavit in applying for a marriage license. She claims that her daughter is only 15 years old while she gave her age as 18 when applying for the license.

Gutierrez and his bride-elect appeared at the county clerk's office yesterday morning and were waited on by Deputy County Clerk A. L.
Hitchcock. He said that the girl appeared to be 18 years of age if not older.

The couple were married by Justice of the Peace Cox and left the courthouse immediately.

Mrs. Tinker, the mother of the girl, says she has information that the couple may try to cross the Mexican border.

Authorities throughout Southern California have been instructed to be on a lookout for the couple.

PRESIDENT MAY SEE COUNTY HARBOR

President Warren G. Harding may inspect Orange county harbor the first time he comes to the coast.

This is the word received today direct from the White House at Washington.

It came by letter to R. L. Bisby, secretary of the Orange County Harbor Association.

Bisby wrote the president two weeks ago extending him an invitation to visit the harbor when he comes to the coast. At that time it was reported that the President was contemplating a trip to Southern California this summer and that he would visit his sister, Mrs.
E. E. Remsburg, in this city.

The communication received today was written by George B.
Christian Jr., secretary to the president, and at the request of President Harding. It says:

"My Dear Mr. Bisby: The president deeply appreciates your kindness in inviting him to visit Orange county harbor, and he asks me to convey to you and to the members of your association an expression of his hearty thanks.

"While it is not now possible to give you a definite answer, he will be glad to give your wishes careful consideration should he determine upon a trip to Southern California."

USERS OF LABOR IN COUNTY HEAR TALK BY LEAGUE LEADER

That a second meeting will in all probability follow yesterday's gathering of fruit and crop growers of the county, was announced today by H. E. Wahlberg, county farm advisor.

A large crowd was present at the farm bureau yesterday afternoon where G. B. Hodgkins of the labor department of the Citrus exchange, Los Angeles, spoke on the manner in which other communities have solved the labor problem. It was stated that at present there is no shortage of labor in any section of the county and no special alarm is felt in regard to the situation in the future.

It is thought that the second meeting may be called, for the purpose of taking precautions to insure a continuation of the present situation during the approaching harvest of the lima bean, sugar beet and walnut crops.

Velie Cuts Hundreds

Velie 48 now the lowest priced six in the world equipped with 7-R Continental Motor and Timken Axles; also many other features equally desirable. There is no car on the market duplicating Velie 48 specifications, regardless of its price.

This $400 reduction—$300 July 2nd and $100 previously—equals the greatest reduction made on any make of automobile selling for even as much as $2,500 prior to the time when price readjustments began. (See Trade Paper schedule of prices.)

(All prices quoted are Delivered, War Tax paid.)

Think of it! The famous Velie Six model 48 $1,885

Other models in the Velie 48 series have been reduced proportionately. All of these Velie prices are now lower than have ever prevailed before on these models.

Model 48	Total Cut	Today's Price	Model 48	Total Cut	Today's Price
Sedan	$400	$2850	Touring Car	$400	$1885
Speedster	400	2110	Seven-Passenger	300	2265

This is a real cut. Here's another on the smaller Velie Six:

Now you can have Velie Six model 34 for $1,625

This is the Velie Six that recently conquered the Grand Canyon. The most amazing feat performed by an automobile. Here is the greatest quality value for the money to be found today.

Model 34	Total Cut	Today's Price	Model 34	Total Cut	Today's Price
Touring Car	$200	$1625	Roadster	$200	$1625

Model 34	Total Cut	Today's Price
Sedan	$400	$2385

All models are regularly equipped with CORD TIRES.

All the world knows Velie values. Even competition admits the Velie excellence. They are the distinctive outstanding cars in any company; unequalled at home and abroad for performance.
Come and see these new 1921 Velie quality sizes at their new prices. With the previous cut the Velie factory was literally swamped with orders. The demand has continued in every month of 1921 because Velie values were absolutely unmatched even at the former prices. Today the factory is going strong with production near the top. Now, with this second cut the demand will easily be doubled. Fortunate indeed is the car buyer who gets his Velie order in early.

WEIGHING JACK IS SUGGESTED IN FIGHTING OVERLOAD

Former Resident of This City Now in East Writes Letter

INTERESTED IN ROADS 'Give Motorcycle Officers Full Authority,' Says Brett

By HORACE FINE (Automobile Editor of The Register.)

Ralph P. Brett, with the "Butterick Quarterly," of Chicago, and a former resident of Santa Ana, writes me from Chicago concerning the subject of preservation of the highways as discussed in this column for the past several weeks.

He adds a suggestion to others that have been made as to the proper method of solving the problem of saving the highway system of Orange county from destruction by overloaded trucks.

He believes that possibly the solution may be had in the appointment of inspection crews equipped with weighing jacks or loadometers and invested with authority to stop all trucks which may be suspected of being overloaded. He would arrest those drivers who are found operating trucks with overloads.

Orange county now has weighing jacks for use by motorcycle officers when they suspect a truck of carrying an overload. It is said that these instruments have been and are being used to good advantage by the motorcycle officers.

Brett's letter is as follows:

Mr. Horace Fine, Automobile Editor, Santa Ana Register, Santa Ana, California. Dear Sir:—Your recent article in The Santa Ana Register on the destruction of the Orange county boulevards by overloaded trucks and motor busses reached me and I was very much interested in it. "I was interested because Santa Ana was formerly my home and is at the present the home of my mother, Mrs. M. E. Brett, and my aunt, Dr. E. E. Poe, and because naturally anything that is of general interest to the home town is of interest to those who still hold it as their home town no matter how far away they may be."

"Orange county has always had reason to boast of her splendid chain of boulevards, an asset far beyond the actual value of the roads in cost per mile."

"It has also had reason to be proud of her very efficient staff of motorcycle cops who have led so many penitent sinners before the throne of Justice Cox. These motorcycle policemen have been maintained by the county primarily to protect life. Why not give them an additional responsibility, that of protecting property—the county's property—property which belongs to every taxpayer in the county and in the upkeep of which the taxpayer is as vitally interested as he is in the progress of Orange county from any other standpoint?"

"That this problem of the protection of roads is not restricted to California alone is evidenced by a number of articles which have appeared in publications recently, some

Suggests Underground Auto Parks as Way to Solve Problem

Underground auto parks are being suggested for relief of traffic congestion in some of the larger cities of the country. San Francisco, having apparently taken the lead in the suggestion. Traffic Captain Henry Gleason of San Francisco advanced the idea to an association of business men of the northern city. He advocated construction of artificial space, two stories high, under Union Square.

Congested traffic is not a disgrace to any city, for it indicates activity, but parking is a problem and it is one that all the larger as well as the smaller cities will have to meet. Santa Ana is having her troubles with the parking question. A solution is being attempted at this time, with various men of the city giving this matter serious consideration.

Underground parking is not necessary here and it probably will be some years before it will be even worth while to consider such a project. Space is available in and near the business section of the city if the proper regulations are adopted and enforced in the opinion of many business men of the city.

COUNTY NOT UP TO BORROWING CAPACITY

Orange county has not reached its limit of bonded indebtedness. It is not anywhere near its limit. In fact, the county could pile up four times its obligations of today and still have something to spare.

These statements are called forth by assertion of one Henry P. Barbour, of Alamitos bay, to the effect that Orange county has about exhausted her bond limit. He makes the statement in a communication to Governor William D. Stephens on matters concerning construction of the coast boulevard provided for in the last state issue of bonds for road building.

He takes issue with a report by the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce concerning the expense of the building of the highway. He is quoted as saying: "I challenge the correctness of the chamber committee's report on the matter of expense. The right of way for the proposed coast route across the Alamitos bay sandpits will cost from $400,000 to $500,000. The bridge to be acceptable to the highway commission and of which the highway commission is the only judge, will cost $300,000. It will lie entirely within the limits of Orange county and the supervisors there will not and cannot build such a bridge for Orange county is now at the limit of its bonded indebtedness."

If Henry P. Barbour was correctly quoted in his statement while discussing the proposed coast highway—that Orange county is now at the limit of its bonded indebtedness, he displayed too much partiality for oratorical privilege, according to William C. Jerome, county auditor.

Orange county's bonded indebtedness totals $1,548,000, in the books of the year which are now being closed by County Auditor W. C. Jerome. This year's valuation, fig-

AUTO INDUSTRY COMES STRONG IS REPORT

R. E. Reid and Ray Townsend Tell of Conditions in East

The automobile industry is reviving and coming strong.

This was the report today of Robert E. Reid, of the Reid Motor company, Chevrolet distributor, and Ray Townsend, of Townsend and Medbery, distributors for the Marmon, Hudson and Essex, following their return after an absence of several weeks in the east. They drove a Marmon touring car out from the factory, purchased by Reid. Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Townsend accompanied them on the trip. "The automobile industry is recovering wonderfully fast," declared Reid. "The manufacturers are gradually getting back into their old strides and their plants are being operated on a more efficient plane than was possible in the days of the war when labor was scarce and any man could get employment, regardless of whether he was efficient."

"The recovery is due to the fact that the manufacturers have been quick to discern the necessity of reducing prices in order to start the country again on a basis more near the normal than that which obtained during the war period, or since."

Demanding Figures "There is plenty of money in the hands of the general public, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The people have the money, but they are not slinging it right and left as they did a year or two ago. They are demanding prices on all commodities in keeping with the general situation."

"It is my belief that were the retail merchants of the east to get 'hep' to themselves and reduce their prices in proportion to the reduced costs of goods to them that general manufacturing and general business conditions would quickly be restored to activity throughout the nation."

"I have no hesitancy in saying that investigations made and my observations have convinced me that the retailers of the east are trying to stick to the big margin of profit they grew accustomed to during the war period. Therein, in my opinion, lies the fault for slow conditions there today."

On Better Basis "I note that California retailers are operating their enterprises on a basis of smaller margins of profit. When the eastern merchants get in line there will be a big revival of business, and when buying starts the wheels of manufacturing enterprises again will be humming. "I am anticipating lively business for automobile dealers in Southern California this fall. In fact, I believe it will be good all over the country, for the dealers have passed all reductions in cars onto the consumer."

DRIVEN ESSEX 12,000 MILES, NO TROUBLE

Neal McClintock, former resident of this district, was here this week from Lodi visiting relatives and old time friends. McClintock bought an Essex touring car here a year ago. He has driven the machine 12,000 miles and declared to Fred Medbery, while he was here visiting that he had never had any trouble with the car. He has driven it as much as 404 miles in one day.

BEST ATHLETIC FIELD AIM OF HAMMOND

New Bleachers and Equipment Being Placed at High School

That Santa Ana high school will soon have the best athletic field and equipment of any similar institution of its kind in the state, was the belief expressed today by Principal D. K. Hammond. New bleachers are already under construction and all improvements on the new field should be completed by the middle of September, according to H. N. Alleman, head of the mechanical arts department at the high school, who is in charge of the work.

Two football fields for the use of the first and second high school teams and the Junior college, a baseball diamond separate from the gridiron, several basketball courts and a new track with a two hundred and twenty-yard straightaway are contained in the plans for the field, beside new bleachers with training quarters underneath.

New bleachers, now under construction at an estimated cost of $3000, are situated on the west side of the football field and will have a seating capacity for 2000 people. They will be 30 feet high and 300 feet long. Plans were drawn by the mechanical arts department by three high school students, Ralph Livenspire, Boyd Munger and Norvel Alcock, and will closely correspond with the bleachers at the Fullerton and Los Angeles high schools. Engineering experts have investigated the plans and say the bleachers will be perfectly safe.

Below the bleachers, new training quarters will be built with cement floor throughout. The present training rooms, located on the northeast corner of the athletic field, will be used by the physical training department, according to Hammond.

The new training rooms will contain private quarters for the medical department, coaches, supplies and will have large dressing accommodations for both the local and visiting teams. Fifteen showers will be installed with many 36-inch private lockers. Doors from the training quarters will open directly on the field, the lowest seat in the bleachers being at the top of the fence. In this manner it will be impossible for spectators in the stands to swarm on the field.

An entirely new track has been laid out, a 220-yard straightaway finishing directly in front of the bleachers being a feature. The sharp curves of the former oval have been abandoned. The track itself will be well worked and will be exceedingly fast, it is said.

There will be two football fields so that any number of candidates for the teams may be taken care of and given attention. The second and Junior College aggregations will thus be enabled to practice separately from the first high school squad.

In the past the baseball diamond has always been laid out where the football field has been in the fall but under the improvement plans the baseball field will have a separate place for play, east of the gridiron. Movable bleachers will be provided for the spectators.

The fence, built by the Letter Men's club of the high school this year at a cost of $400, will enclose the entire athletic plot.

WILL SOON PAVE BREA CANYON ROAD

Pavement of Brea canyon road from the Orange county line to the summit is in sight, according to advice sent to J. C. Metzger, secretary of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, by the Auto club of Southern California today.

The Los Angeles Board of Supervisors has advertised for bids for doing the work. A six-inch concrete pavement twenty feet wide is proposed.

Grading work is already under way and pouring of concrete will be undertaken as soon as the fills have properly settled.

In the meantime the road department of Los Angeles county will surround the roadway with natural materials that will make the road traversable in comfort.

SEVERAL CARLOADS OF DODGES ON WAY

With three carloads of Dodges in transit, and a wire from the factory yesterday stating that five carloads would be shipped to Santa Ana during July, O. A. Haley, county distributor for the Dodge Brothers car, today was anticipating catching up with advance orders by the end of this month.

"The carloads will take care of orders that we have in hand now but it is possible that the sales during the month will make a waiting list still necessary at the end of the month," said Haley today.

Dodge Brothers one and a half ton truck is here and is being demonstrated and sold by James Walker, formerly a mechanic with Haley. A delivery has been made to C. C. Chapman, at Placentia. The truck sells for $2060.

BRIEF REVIEW OF AUTO PAST IS GIVEN

THE AUTOMOBILE—A BRIEF REVIEW.

(By W. S. Wheaton, general agent of the Salt Lake Railroad.)

The part played by the automobile and tractor in making America the greatest nation on earth, is a story that is without parallel. No phase of the world's commercial development and progress offers such value to mankind as the automobile.

Because I have been actively employed in the field of transportation from childhood, both on land and sea, and in many parts of the world, the subject of traffic and transportation has always been the greatest factor with me.

I can say, without possible fear of contradiction, insofar as facts or figures are concerned, that the automobile has done as much as any one of the three sub-divisions of that great industry of all factors, transportation, in placing American world achievement at the very topmost place among the nations of the earth.

Looking Backward. As an agent of the Salt Lake railroad back in 1910, when the automobile business first began to come into its own, it was my privilege to be the first railroad agent to specialize in soliciting exclusively automobiles to be hauled by my line, and many were the criticisms I heard in those days.

I recall how a certain religious gentleman assured me that the automobile was a device of the evil one and would be the undoing of the nation.

Others among my railroad friends saw disaster to the railroads, but it has always been my belief that any kind of improvement and betterment of our transportation system, whether on land or sea, offered more traffic accounts and increased business. I was one railroad man who was, and is, a booster for the automobile and also the steamship, and for the development of both as aids to the biggest and best system of transportation in the world—the American railroad—and by the way, also the cheapest on earth, notwithstanding the hue and cry one hears these days.

Next to the fact that we live, and second, the fact that without water we could not continue to live, comes the third element in our existence—transportation, without which development and progress would have left us approximately 1000 years behind the times. With it, as we have it here in America, it has put us away out to the fore of all other nations.

Automobile Does Much. The automobile has done as much as any one thing to make life worth while. Imagine our country today back to the days of "Old Dobbin," of dirt roads, of one and one-half tons per load per fifteen miles per day. Think of what we have and then think of conditions in other countries due largely to lack of an idea of our real transportation, and you, too, will become an enthusiastic booster for the mind to take a hand in the effort to further improve and better its possibilities, not the least of which is improved road building and maintenance ideas.

Comparing some 1911 registration records in this state for the first six months I note that Studebaker led the field with a total registration for the period of 1230 machines, the Buick having 627, Overland 627, Cadillac 369 and Reo 253. As late as

EFFICIENCY MEN OF O. C. IGNITION HAVE EXCELLENT MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Employees' Efficiency club of the Orange County Ignition Works, was held in Fullerton Wednesday of this week.

There was a large attendance and according to Tom Willits, president, it was a fine meeting.

"We tore right in and worked out a new plan of organization for our club," said Willits. "One thing we have noticed, is that our meetings have not all been as interesting as they should have. We believe that each meeting in the hands of a committee. We will choose the committee from among the members of the club in alphabetical rotation, three being selected for each committee."

"We also agreed that the club should be self-supporting, consequently from now on regular dues will be levied upon all members of the club. It is not obligatory for any employee of the Orange County Ignition Works to join the organization."

"As a special feature of the meetings, cigars are to be furnished by the manager of the Service Stations where the meetings are held. At the next meeting, which will be during the latter part of July, new officers will be chosen. Up to now, the club has never had a constitution, but we believe the time has arrived when we need one. We are old enough to stand by ourselves, and I think in the future we will do so."

DAVE GRAY SELLS BUICK CAR NOW

Dave Gray low is engaged in shouting the fine points of the Buick, having taken a position as salesman with the Orange County Garage company, local agents. Gray has been selling other lines in this city since entering the automobile game two or three years ago and has been meeting with fine success.

Otto Kolberg and Henry Gerken, owner of the Orange County Garage company, and others connected with the local agency, were very much interested this week in the "come back" of Joe Nikrent as a racing driver. He drove a Buick in the Nevada Thousand-Mile Racing classic this week. The course was over the desert—and that is where Nikrent shines.

Nikrent quit the racing game some years ago. He was one of the popular drivers in the Los Angeles to Phoenix races in times gone by. He won third in the race, which was finished yesterday afternoon. W. W. Bramlette won first, covering the distance in 29 hours, 49 minutes and 48 seconds. George Harrison was second.

CANADIAN PERMITS CAN BE HAD HERE

Canada will find permits available at the local office of the Auto Club of Southern California, according to announcement today by C. W. Lindsey, manager. The club will assist in filling out the permits so that motorists will lose no time at the border. Fishing and hunting licenses and fire permits for any of the forest reserves also are available at this office.

AUTO CLUB HAS 181 CLAIMS IN MONTH

During the past month over 181 different claims involving a total of $5,600 damages, were settled by the Automobile Club of Orange County.

According to W. Lester Tubbs, assistant to Manager A. S. Ralph of the club, the number of accidents are on the increase.

"Each year sees an increasing number of accidents," said Tubbs. "This increase is no doubt caused by the greater number of cars in use every year. Another factor in the cause of accidents, is the fact that today there are more kids driving cars than ever before."

"Many people do not realize that insurance does not cover cars driven by anyone under 16 years of age."

"A great many people, when stating the cause of their accidents, put them down as 'unavoidable'. This is a misnomer. The only unavoidable accidents are those caused by the breakage of some vital portion of the car, rendering control impossible. The greater percentage of all other accidents is caused by pure, unadulterated carelessness."

"In proportion to the number of cars, there are less accidents in the west than in the east. The auto clubs have secured legislation which tends to reduce the number of accidents, and it is a fact that a great many of the accidents are caused by out-of-state cars whose drivers are unfamiliar with our regulations. Proof of the legislation against accidents in the west is shown by the fact that the eastern insurance rates are nearly double those of the western clubs."

DRIVING CADILLAC ON EXTENSIVE TOUR

W. P. Goodrich, of Huntington Beach, departed today for an extended automobile tour, covering California, Oregon and Washington. He and his family started out on their trip in a brand new Suburban Cadillac, the car having been delivered yesterday by the Cadillac Garage company. The tourists will be gone three months.

The Cadillac Garage company also reports the sale and delivery of a Cadillac Victoria to R. W. Edens, president of the Edens Oil Syndicate, Huntington Beach.

JULY GUARANTEE FIRMS JOINING REDUCTION RANKS

Briscoe, Nash, National, Stutz, Olds and Moon Give New Prices

CONDITIONS DIFFERENT

Some of the Local Dealers Discuss the General Situation

Automobile factories guaranteeing their prices until the first of July are falling in line with the trend of the times and have announced substantial reductions. The price guarantees to July 1 were given when old war prices commenced to hit the toboggan last September and October.

Some of the factories announced new quotation effective yesterday and others effective today.

Automobile prices have been tumbling since the first of May. The start of the decline came last September, when Henry Ford started the automobile world with the announcement of a new price schedule. About fifteen manufacturers joined in the procession at that time, with others declaring guaranteed prices to various periods following September—some to the first of May and others to the first of July, this year.

It is the consensus of opinion of directors of the National automobile Chamber of Commerce that other companies will make reductions and that when these have been made, that no more declines may be anticipated this year.

Names of Cars Among the manufacturers announcing reduced prices for this month are the Briscoe, Nash, Oldsmobile, Vellie, National, Stutz and Moon.

"The Briscoe establishes a distinctive innovation by equipping its product at new list price with windshield wipers, front and rear pumpers, running board pads and nickel radiator," said Charles H. McCausland, local distributor today. "This means that the buyer at the new price will be able to secure a complete car without going to the additional expense deemed necessary by many to secure comfort and satisfaction."

"The Briscoe cut ranges from $200 to $400, and was effective yesterday. The Oldsmobile decline ranges from $100 to $1145, with sixes and eights being equipped with cord tires."

"The Eight and Four are new models and the cut in prices has been made because people were expecting it," said C. C. Tash, sales manager for Nelson Peterson, agent. "The new Eight is the same chassis as the four. The old prices quoted on eights are for the larger model formerly manufactured by the company."

Nash prices show a decline varying from $260 to $155.

"The reduction represents the production saving that the factory is now able to make over the condition that existed immediately following the war," said W. C. May, president of the May Motor company, today.

"In comparison with some of our competitors, this reduction will seem small, but it should be remembered that the price of the Nash was increased only thirty-one per cent as against raises by competitors ranging as high as 102 per cent."

The Figures Here are the old and new prices on the Briscoe, Nash and Stutz and the amount of reduction on each model. The Vellie cut is from $125 to $400 and was effective today.

"The Vellie price today compares with the best of them, values considered," declared G. H. Christian, of Christian Bros., Vellie and Maxwell agents.

BRIEF REVIEW OF

1911 some writers referred to the automobile as a tolerated nuisance, all of which calls to mind some very well meaning gentleman back in Ohio who solemnly but authoritatively forbade the proponents of proposed railroad development of what is now the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern from soliciting assistance or telling of building plans because they asserted nothing but an implement of the devil could travel at the frightful rate of speed of fifteen miles an hour. Some present day critics of our transportation problems and system might "look and listen" to advantage.

More Auto Figures.
In 1911 the total production of automobiles in the United States was 209,957 machines. Ford now turns out more than 104,000 cars per month. Ten years ago our manufacturers exported 11,803 machines and our more exacting buyers of the times purchased from foreign manufacturers 888 cars. Two hundred and forty-one makes of automobiles that we knew about in 1911 are past history today. If California will continue to improve her roads in the future as in the past, automobiles, steamships and railroads will make her, because of the great value of the cheap transportation they render, and because of which she will be enabled to do an immense traffic and because the greatest state in the union.

ures of which will be compiled in about thirty days, will show that Orange county's limit of bonded indebtedness is approximately $5,500,000, he said.

"Last year's valuation was $103,000,000," he added, "therefore it is quite reasonable to estimate this year's valuation at $110,000,000."

"The county is allowed 5 per cent of its valuation in indebtedness. We still are short some $4,000,000 of our credit allowance, or, in other words, we have borrowed only one-fifth of what we could borrow if we so desired."

WEIGHING JACK IS

of which have undoubtedly come to your attention. A rather interesting one you will find appended to this letter. It is from the May 21st issue of the Literary Digest.

(The article discusses weighing jacks, such as are now in use here.—Ed.)

"That there is a solution for the prevention of the destruction of the paved boulevards of Orange county, goes without saying. That public sentiment will demand action along this line, also goes without saying. As to whether inspection crews equipped with weighing jacks or loadometers and invested with authority to stop all trucks which they may suspect of being overloaded would be the solution remains to be worked out by those on whom the responsibility for the problem's solution rests.

"Be that as it may, this is only a suggestion from one who is still very much interested in Orange county and its progress."

CADILLAC PLEAS
VACATION DRIVER

Averaged twelve miles to the gallon of gasoline, used one quart of oil and added no water to the radiator—this was the record Harry Hanson made with his Cadillac on an 800-mile vacation trip, which he has just completed.

Hanson's tour took him into the Yosemite valley and to other points in the northern part of the state. He was accompanied by his family. Hanson was wise enough to take camp equipment with him and he found it more than convenient during his sojourn in Yosemite. He states that the valley is crowded with visitors and that the pavilion is being used as sleeping quarters.

"I saw more Cadillacs in the valley than any other make of car," says Hanson. "It certainly is a pleasure to take a trip in a machine like the Cadillac. There is plenty of power and the riding qualities are unsurpassed."

NEW ELKS' LODGE IS FORMED; ONTARIO

ONTARIO, July 2.—With more than 1200 members of the antlered herd here from all parts of Southern California and with Harry M. "Dick" of Pasadena, acting district deputy grand exalted ruler in charge of the impressive ceremonies, Ontario lodge, No. 1419, B. P. O. Elks, was formally installed Wednesday night at the California theater.

Sixty-seven candidates were initiated into the new lodge following its institution, officers of Pomona lodge conferring the initiatory degree. The following officers were elected and installed in the "baby" lodge:

William Springer, Exalted Ruler; C. E. Mead, Esteemed Leading Knight; P. H. Norton, Esteemed Loyal Knight; C. B. Thrall, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; John H. Gordon, secretary; Ernest C. Mehl, Treasurer; Erich J. Ritter, Tyler; Fred H. Smith, Chaplain; E. L. Lowe, Esquire; George B. Bower, Inner Guard; Dr. J. H. Titus, H. O. Chapman, and H. C. Moore, trustees.

EX-SOLDIER SINGS IN 3 VOICES AT ONCE

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The federal board of vocational education has discovered a man whose vocation, apparently, is to be a chorus all by himself. He is Joseph Kaufman, disabled veteran, and is able, the board's announcement asserts, "to sing in three voices at one time," sounding like three men side by side, singing in unison.

Only one similar case has ever been known in the United States. Kaufman is described also as "an accomplished and versatile saxophone player" and has been placed in a Minneapolis school of music to prepare for a career in vaudeville.

BERKELEY, July 2.—C. L. Banks, a musician, 1032 Willow street, saved himself from an attack by a vicious dog by beating off the animal with his violin. He struck it with his violin and there ensued a five-minute battle before the dog was beaten. The musical instrument was ruined.

'HONEST' GAMBLER IS NOW ONLY MEMORY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Few old timers who know Abe Haas, the gambler, in his palmy days, would have recognized him in the shabby figure who thrust aside evening commuters on an evening ferry, and flung himself into the bay and drowned.

But Abe in the '70's and '80's was a conspicuous figure in San Francisco. He was known as the "honest gambler" and strolled down Market street in flashy vests and fancy spats.

But his rich clientele gradually fell away, and Abe was reduced to peddling lottery tickets. He became a derelict of the "good old days."

"Man overboard," was the cry—only that. The crowd did not know him. The "honest gambler" died, unwept, unsung.

TWO COLTS IN CABIN
ALMOST STARVED

SISSON, Siskiyou Co., July 2.—L. N. Lorenzen and Ranger Everett, while coming back to Sisson on the Castle creek road stopped at an old cabin. They found two colts inside the cabin, which evidently had been imprisoned for about ten days. The colts had managed to squeeze through a small opening and once within they could not escape. They were nearly starved to death when found.

You want to know what to expect of your car when it is a year old and has had thousands of miles of service.

Will it become loose and noisy? Grow wasteful of oil and fuel? Lose efficiency? Require replacements, frequent repairs and adjustments? Or will it remain free of these disabilities?

Ask about the clutch. It is so efficient, hardly any driver is even conscious the car has such a unit. The items which account for long Essex life are for the most part inconspicuous.

Unless you are mechanically inclined their details would hardly interest you. But what they give in greater performance, smoothness, and safety are of the highest importance.

"A Car That Never Wears Out"

Of course, that can not be literally true. But because of the ease with which adjustments can be made and replacements installed, the Hudson Super-Six has virtually a perpetual life.

No Super-Six seems ever to have become wholly disabled through wear. In fact, in various parts of the country men make a business of buying up old Hudsons and restoring them. You would be surprised at the slight cost necessary to put a Super-Six in good condition. No special skill not found in the average repair shop is required.

And the fact that Hudson body lines have been so consistently expressive of good taste, makes them acceptable when more extreme types have become "Old Fashioned."

Because of these facts you will find Hudsons six years old that are nearing a hundred thousand miles of service.

HERE IS SKETCH OF DEMPSEY'S ACTIVITIES

Jack Dempsey was born in Salt Lake City in 1895.

He was a roving youngster and didn't see much of school.

Started his professional boxing career in 1915 out west.

He kept at the game, fighting for small sums, meeting anybody to keep himself in food.

Rode the brake beams from place to place. He didn't show much outside of a "pork and bean" class until three years ago.

When he came to New York the first time he was broke.

A friend staked him to an overcoat to protect him from the wintry blasts.

He fought John Lester Johnson and won the decision.

Then he fasted for a long period and was knocked out by Fireman Jim Flynn, in what has always been regarded as "one of those things."

Jack Kearns took charge of him and he just began to show real form when the war broke out. He did not enlist, but went to the shipyards.

Quick knockouts of Carl Morris, Bill Brennan, Bat Levinsky and Fred Fulton enabled to get a fight with Jess Willard for the world's championship and he won the title in Toledo in 1919.

SACS SCORE NINE IN NINTH BUT LOSE 12-11

SALT LAKE, July 2.—Salt Lake won an unusual game from Sacramento, 12 to 11. The winning run was knocked over in the ninth, when, with the bases full and two out, Siglin sent a single to center, scoring Byler. With the score 11 to 2 against them, the visitors staged rally in the ninth, putting across nine runs and tying the score. Duffy Lewis hit two home runs and a double.

Sacramento 11 19 3
Salt Lake 12 17 2

Sacramento—Niehaus, Kunz, Sheehan, Shea and Elliott, Cook; Salt Lake, Bromley, Thurston, Gould and Lynn.

LOS ANGELES, July 2.—Los Angeles made three straight from Oakland, winning 8 to 5, by driving "Buzz" Arlett off the hill in the first two spasms. Winn, relieving Arlett, allowed only two hits.

Oakland 5 12 2
Los Angeles 8 8 2

Oakland—Arlett, Winn and Mitz; Los Angeles, Reinhart, Thomas and Baldwin.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—San Francisco won from Vernon in an uphill battle, 8 to 5.

Vernon 5 13 2
San Francisco 8 13 2

Vernon—Shellenback and Hannah; San Francisco, Shore, Lewis and Agnew.

GEORGES WEARS GAY OUTFIT TO RINGSIDE

MANHASSET, N. Y., July 2.—Georges Carpentier, eager for his fight for the world's boxing championship, was up at 6:30 a. m., today, full of pep and in high spirits.

He plunged into a cold shower, donned an old brown shirt, gray trousers, red and white checkered socks and heavy walking boots, and was at the breakfast table at seven o'clock.

Shortly after that hour the front door of the farm house where Georges lives flew open and a young man leaped down the steps and cavorted to the barbed wire fence.

"Good morning," he yelled in French at the reporters clustered on the other side of the fence. "Mon dieu! Didn't you boys sleep last night at all?"

He grinned broadly, then he hitched up his old gray pants to his knees, exposing the loudly checkered socks and executed a brisk double shuffle, while his dog Flip barked and leaped around him.

A minute later Carpentier darted out through the gate and ran down the road. Pierre Mallet, who has been with him throughout his training, was at his heels. Then Gus Wilson, his trainer, holding one hand on his hip as if he carried a "gat" there, trotted after the other two men. They slowed to a snappy walk, swinging their arms strenuously and chatting with animation as they turned off the road and struck across the fields.

"I never felt better in my life," said Carpentier when he returned to the house after his walk. "This air is invigorating. I had eight hours solid sleep last night—never even turned over."

Carpentier lounged around the parlor during the morning looking over the fight news in the papers. He dressed for the trip to Jersey City, donning a gray plaid suit, soft shirt, tie of lively hue, tan shoes and a yachting cap worn at a jaunty angle.

TILDEN IS VICTOR IN BRITISH FINALS

WIMBLEDON, England, July 2.—William Tilden today triumphed over B. Norton, South African, in the finals of the British men's singles tennis matches here.

Coming from behind after losing two sets the champion racket wielder smothered the South African in the next two sets, winning 6-1 and 6-0. The final and deciding set was hotly contested, finally going to the American, 7-5.

BOOMER WINS FRENCH NATIONAL GOLF TITLE

BOULOGNE, July 2.—Aubrey Boomer, a young British professional golfer of the St. Cloud (France) club, won the French national open golf championship by defeating Arnold Massey of France in the play-off of Thursday's tie. Massey twice held the French open championship and the British championship in 1907. Boomer, formerly a pupil of Massey, won, 142 to 135.

"Can't tell you now," replied Senator Sorghum. "But the typist has it in hand, and I think I will give it out to the public tomorrow."

PIRATES SLAM RIXEY, WIN FROM REDS AGAIN

PITTSBURGH, July 2.—Timely hitting and a Cincinnati error gave Pittsburgh a 5-to-2 victory over the Reds today.

Cincinnati 2 5 2
Pittsburgh 5 11 0

Cincinnati—Rixey, Donohue and Wingo; Pittsburgh—Morrison and Schmidt.

SUPPORT SAVES ALEXANDER
CHICAGO, July 2.—Chicago defeated St. Louis, 8 to 6, in a see-saw game today, in which they were out-hit by the visitors.

Chicago 8 12 0

St. Louis—Haines, North and Clements, Dillhoefer; Chicago—Alexander and O'Farrell.

MOONSHINE CACHE IN TREE CATCHES FIRE

SAN JOSE, July 2.—Fire which suddenly blazed up in a hollow tree at Third and Virginia streets, resulting in the fire department being called to the scene, was caused by "moonshine" liquor becoming ignited, and the tree has in reality been a hiding place for illicit booze, according to the officers who investigated.

Broken bottles which had evidently exploded from the heat, were found in the trunk after the fire. They cannot understand how the fire started, unless it was spontaneous combustion on the part of the moonshine.

RAID SIRENS WILL TELL PARIS NEWS

PARIS, July 2.—The air raid sirens of Paris, silent since the last time Boche aviators bombed the city, will shriek the news of Carpentier's or Dempsey's victory tonight.

Three siren blasts—Dempsey wins. Twelve siren blasts—Carpentier wins.

Three million in Paris, gathered in restaurants, theaters, clubs, sidewalk cafes and in thousands of homes, will begin listening for the siren at 8 p. m. (3 p. m., Jersey City time).

When the whistling begins, if it stops at three blasts the heart of Paris will drop to the depths of despair. But if the tooting goes on announcing a Carpentier victory—the lid will fly sky high.

OBREGON THROWS OUT BALL TO OPEN LEAGUE

MEXICO CITY, July 2.—President Obregon threw out the first ball at the opening of the baseball season here yesterday. A baseball league has been organized and will play regularly scheduled games throughout the summer. The winner will be awarded a pennant as one of the many athletic features of the centennial celebration to be held here in September.

EVENING SALUTATION

"We are all heirs and heiresses to the treasure house of the past, but we must put forth effort to get its knowledge and apply it."

CALVIN COOLIDGISM

Here opportunity lies open to all, to each according to his ability to grasp it.

In a knowledge of the truth our freedom lies.

No other institution (the American Government) ever had so strong a foundation. It is based on self-interest. It is supported by enlightened reason.

The time is upon us as Americans to give of ourselves, of our bodies to toil, of our hearts to effort, of our souls to sacrifice.

For when men know an evil they correct it.

For the regeneration of that which is evil there must be toil and effort and sacrifice.

There may be plans to destroy faith in the Republic, to pervert the minds of the young with false doctrines and suggestive books, to shake the loyalty of the mature toward the government of the fathers, but they can not prevail against the reasonable efforts of unselfish patriotism.

The good is never self-existent.

It is never wise to disregard the reports and opinions of trained observers.

The property of the American nation is owned by the people and is more evenly distributed than anywhere else on earth.

They (some of the clergy) hold strange views, preach strange sermons, write strange books, engage in strange activities and get strange newspaper fame.

Conservatism does not make much noise, but it is none the less powerful.

There can be no adequate consideration of the public attitude toward the government and the institutions of America which does not inquire as to what is going on in the public schools.

Under meager compensation and with scant appreciation they (our public-school teachers) toil on side by side with the clergy, holding the ramparts of civilization, molding the minds of youth for all eternity.

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT

According to the Delineator, a high school boy wrote the following composition on the subject "The Washington Monument." The late and truly lamented Franklin K. Lane, formerly Secretary of the Interior and also one of America's most distinguished writers, says he wishes he might have written it. Its strength and its simplicity make it worthy of reprint:

"The Washington monument is built of stones contributed by the nations of the earth to honor the founder of this Republic. In its shadow it looks like a finger pointing to the stars. From Arlington, where they bury men who die for America, it looks like a giant spike God might have driven into the earth and said: 'Here I stake a claim for the home of liberty.'"

Isn't it about time for somebody to print another intense revelation of what happened at the peace conference?

LABOR'S RIGHTS AND DUTIES

The fight for the power and independence of organized labor is to be carried on more aggressively than ever before, according to plans crystallized at the meeting in Denver. One leader describes the situation as follows:

"For the first time in forty years organized labor now has a positive aggressive policy to enforce its right to collective bargaining in every industry and to demand equal enjoyment with capital of all rights, privileges and immunities granted to corporate interests as compensation for services rendered."

No such statement would meet with opposition from employers or public if it were accompanied by a declaration of labor's firm purpose to bear its equal share of responsibility for the completion of tasks assigned, for the safeguarding of the interests of the public and the fair protection of the capital invested. Here and there a voice has been raised in the convention to assert that these are the duties of organized labor, but mostly the talk has been only of its rights. No one-sided policy will ever bring lasting success to labor any more than it will to capital.

THE INTERNATIONAL COURT

There is no apparent reason why Elihu Root, Judge George Gray, John Bassett Moore and Oscar S. Straus should not proceed to nominate four candidates for election as judges of the International Court of Justice, as they have been asked to do. The fact that the court is established under the authority of the League of Nations, and the United States is not a member of the league, does not seem to have anything necessarily to do with the question.

The four Americans named are invited to perform this service in their capacity as members of The Hague Arbitration tribunal. This is in accordance with the plan for the establishment of the court which Mr. Root himself drew up. The only possible irregularity in the proceedings is that the American members of The Hague tribunal may be considered as acting in their personal capacity in making these nominations, rather than as official representatives of the United States. Any such quibble may be ignored, in view of the fact that the judges to be elected are not considered as specifically representing any nation or any political party.

Two of the men to be proposed are to be Americans. If the United States ever enters the League of Nations, and thereby recognizes this Permanent Court of Justice, there will be a natural satisfaction in having Americans already sitting as judges. If it continues to hold aloof, there is no harm done by having individual Americans in that body, any more than there is in having them in the arbitration tribunal to which Mr. Root and his associates belong.

There is doubt, however, as to whether the new court will amount to much more than the old Hague tribunal. Only a few members of the League of Nations have accepted the principle of compulsory arbitration of international disputes. There is little prospect of the court being given enough power to make it really effective unless the United States should enter the league. In that case, confidence in America might induce the other nations of the league to put teeth in the court.

INNOCENT WALL STREET

An honest-looking youth walked into the office of a firm of Wall Street investment brokers and asked whether they had any securities to be delivered. They had, and turned over to him without question a package containing $44,000 in negotiable bonds. The honest-looking young stranger disappeared, and so did the bonds.

It was too easy! There have been stories, during the last year or so, of the theft of millions of dollars' worth of securities in that famous financial gulch, and yet its denizens do not seem to learn. They may be expert in taking other people's money, but they are just as vulnerable when it happens to occur to anybody else to take their money—provided it is done by some method just a little out of the ordinary Wall Street routine.

O. Henry used to tell how easy New York was, for any clever sharper from beyond the Hudson or the East river. The easiest spot in the whole island is evidently the little area where the most sophisticated metropolitan minds are supposed to congregate. The Wall street man is pathetically helpless when somebody springs a new game on him. As a result, almost any minute somebody is likely to sell him a gold brick or a lightning rod or a bunch of oil stock or a submerged farm in Florida. It is not always the supposedly unsophisticated "rube" in the provinces who is hard to bunco.

Japs Displace Whites

Sacramento Bee

Yesterday The Bee published a special from Auburn giving authentic particulars of the dismissal from employment by the Placer Packing Association of eight or nine white girls and the hiring of six Japanese men to take their places.

Manager Culper of the Association was quoted as saying that it was more than satisfied with the change; that the white girls had worked only eight hours a day, while the Japanese were willing to work fifteen hours, or even more, on a pinch, and were packing twice or two and a half times as many boxes in a day as the girls had done.

His only excuse—if it be an excuse—was the packing plant was too small to permit of hiring as many girls as would be needed to handle all the fruit coming in, and he said that if there were more room no Japanese would have been employed.

This is a case highly illustrative of the evil and danger of Japanese immigration, and of the impossibility of white competition with Japanese or other Oriental labor without degradation to low Asiatic standards of living.

With Japanese willing to work fifteen hours or even more a day, what show has white labor to compete with them?

California has laws to protect girls and women from being obliged to work too many hours a day, but there is no protection against such health-wrecking competition as this.

Accordingly, where Japanese or other Oriental laborers are to be had there is nothing but public sentiment to prevent their getting jobs away from white girls and women, as in this Placer county instance.

The Placer Packing Association, in displacing white girls by Japanese men, has not distinguished itself in public estimation.

But it has at least furnished a striking and historic example of the need of the Oriental Exclusion League and of all such measures of self-protection as California has taken or is seeking in this regard.

Common Mistakes

The Oklahoman

Judge McCormick of San Francisco says these are the thirteen commonest mistakes in life:

To attempt to set up your own standards of right and wrong.

To try to measure the enjoyment of others by your own.

To expect uniformity of opinions in this world.

To fail to make allowances for inexperience.

To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.

Not to yield to unimportant trifles.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.

To consider a thing impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.

Failing to help every body wherever, however and whenever we can.

To believe only what our minds can grasp.

Not to make allowances for the weakness of others.

As to Stockings

Buffalo Express

That young Presbyterian Sunday school teacher said something when she asked the Atlantic City authorities who have decreed that women bathers shall wear stockings: "Who attracts the really unfavorable attention, the girl with bare legs or madly who rolls along the boardwalk with legs crossed, showing her costly silk stockings at least to the knee?"

The young woman bather with the frankly bared legs is properly attired for the thing she is supposed to do. She should not be a subject for criticism, though she may be an object of admiration. But so far as the latter point is concerned, would stockings make any difference? We have a habit of being quite fussy at times over things which are perfectly natural.

IN SINCERITY

The pungent fragrance of the flower is its evidence of sincerity. One knows at once that it is real.

Men and women carry about them an invisible atmosphere which either attracts or repels, builds or destroys, sweetens or sours.

Instinctively one feels realism—sincerity.

A baby feels it. A horse does. A dog gets it at once.

There is no way in the world whereby falseness may be concealed. Sincerity looms like day and radiates as do the rays of the sun.

In sincerity are all the precious treasures of life warmly and securely wrapped.

And through sincerity are hearts made like pure gold—a thousand fine! We know sincerity because we see it so often. In eyes that look right into ours, in the strength and fineness of the hand-shake, and by the very mode and method of the words that reach our sight and hearing from the heart-rooms of those we trust.

With sincerity ruling the one we love, we can go a million miles or more in the forgiving line. For sincerity, somehow, seems to pivot all else. It is impossible to be insincere and people not know it.

No one has ever been able to conceal character. Words, deeds, fame, money, social standing—character walks at the head and precedes them all.

But without sincerity, character is like unto a crumbled ruin—desolate and full of tragedy.

Strive—in sincerity.

The Velvet Hammer

By A. B. B.

DR. R. A. CUSHMAN

The human individual is often out of plumb. His works are noted for their gift of going on the bum. To mend the wheels that spin their cogs in man's distinguished clock, requires the ministrations of the wise and skillful doc, who's studied through the colleges where wisdom is attained and treasured up the lessons which experience has gained.

But if, on top of all of that, as Doctor Cushman had, he has a line of doctors for his forebears and his dad, can show the tools of surgery they used in ages gone, and flash his own to prove how well the world is getting on, it gives him a foundation for imponderable skill, to dig into his fellow man, to tunnel, cave and fill.

And Cushman's strong on carving a political affair. He analyzes everything with scientific care. He synthesizes lengthy chains of causes and effects, and matters often happen in the way which he expects. It is a proper portion of the sober surgeon's art, to fasten things together or to sunder them apart.

Worth While Verses

LONELINESS

I sit upon my lonely hill
Above the little town
Just at the farther edge of day
When one white star looks down.

The huddled houses murmur soft,
The drifting shadows meet,
And little lights show red and warm
A-down the drowsy street.

The slow stars gather while I watch;
The houses, one by one,
Put out their lights and go to sleep—
At last the day is done!

I sit, of all the town, awake—
So quiet that it seems
The hill, the stary night, and I
Are fragments of their dreams.

But oh, I am not quite content
To watch here all alone—
To be of others' dreams a part
And never have my own!

RUPTURE

Q. Please inform me personally is there any cure for rupture. I have been so two years. Trusses or appliances only serve, to my judgment, to keep the rupture in place, and I doubt whether either ceases the growth of the rupture. I am wearing an appliance now, and these things you must have to keep them strapped or buckled up around you all of life.

A. Excepting in treatment of rupture in childhood, the wearing of a truss or other appliance does not cure the rupture. It merely holds it in place, and gives relief. The radical cure of rupture is accomplished by means of an operation. This operation is so well understood at the present time that very excellent results are obtained by such operation by many surgeons throughout the country. Unless there is some special reason why you cannot submit to an operation, I would urge you to have your physician refer you to a first-class surgeon, so that you may be examined and receive proper advice as to just what you should do.

HARDENING OF THE ARTERIES
The Public Health Service has no bulletins which deal with hardening of the arteries. This is a condition usually of advanced life, the cause of which, in many cases, is obscure.

It is not possible to attempt specific advice for one who is suffering from hardening of the arteries. Everything will depend upon the particular conditions present. As a rule, to be sure, it will be wise to restrict the diet; food consumed, to prohibit smoking and to protect the patient against excitement.

In every instance, the patient should place himself under the care of a good physician and follow his advice.

Clean Pictures

If the people want clean moving pictures they can have them. Unless they want them with sufficient earnestness, intensity and sincerity to make it more profitable to produce and to exhibit clean, unobjectionable pictures than to make and exhibit the filthy, vulgar, and low-down pictures and more that are objectionable.

Systematic effort has been made, for some time by a group of eminent producers, to elevate the standards in film and to produce only the type of films which are pure and without debasing suggestiveness. But no less an authority than George Beban, who has become world-famous as an impersonator of Italian characters—he himself being Scotch-Irish—says that of eighteen pictures produced comparatively recently with this ideal of cleanliness uppermost, only two were financially successful. Even his own pictures—that which there are none cleaner or more wholesome—have not been successful monetarily. This prompted Mr. Beban to travel across the continent to appeal to the public, through addresses in theaters and elsewhere, to give their patronage support to clean pictures and to encourage the business of producing undemoralizing films.

This puts squarely before the public the issue as to whether or not clean or unclean films are more desired. If the pure and inspiring film is to be greeted with empty seats and poor box office receipts, while the risqué, suggestive picture has full houses and a long waiting line, naturally many producers will run to the production of unclean films.

The people should make it their business to turn the production of bad pictures into bad business. Withhold patronage from the unclean, patronize the clean in pictures, and the cleansing of the screen would be effected quickly.

Your Boy and the Fourth

From the Delineator

We have been thinking about the Fourth of July—and what we shall say to our boy on that day. We turned to a few well-known Americans for guidance. They are parents, these Americans, and leaders in their walks of life. First, we saw a minister whose oratory and books have made him a name and a small fortune. He would advise his children to approach the day with reverence, to consider the blessings of this country and our obligation to the rest of the world—and, he concluded, we must bring disarmament and spread the word of God among the heathen.

He talked for half an hour and then said: "That is not what you wanted me to say, is it?"

It was not what we wanted, but it is what most of us get—the Fourth of July. And if we were that minister's child, we would know what to do when the sermon ended.

We should take the advice of a famous statesman, who, when we asked him also what he would tell his children of the Fourth of July, said:

"Tell them to read the Declaration of Independence—and then go fishing."

We asked a number of other public-spirited men the same question.

Most of them drew a long breath, came to the soap-box attitude and delivered the stereotyped Fourth of July "Give me liberty or give me death" oration. They spoke without serious thought or deep feeling.

And then we entered the office of Theodore Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of the Navy, and we repeated our question.

Colonel Ted had been giving a political handshake and a public man's smile to the public—but my question struck the political mask from his face. Very seriously he said:

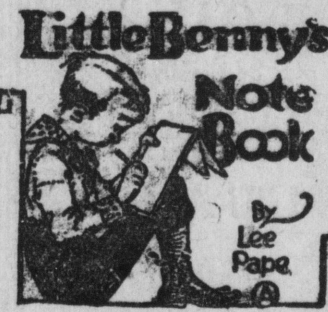

"I am going to TRY to talk to my children as my father used to talk to us. I've got to do some thinking for myself first."

"We are the future of our forefathers. We are the people of whom they were thinking when they framed the Declaration."

If it means anything to us at all, we should live the Fourth of July in the spirit in which it was created. There are a lot of things we can worry about today—pressing problems.

But for one day we should give serious thought to the protection of our children's children, and the things we are doing today in their respect upon the generations to come when we shall have been forgotten."

An echo of T. R. In the midst of all the mouthings, the chattering of unthinking people, how many of us are thinking of the future, and the destiny we are creating for our children's children?

Bear Stories for Bedtime

BILLY BEAR'S FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION
By Harvey Elliott

It was the morning of the fourth of July. Of course Billy Bear didn't know the Fourth of July from any other day, but he surely had a fine celebration just the same. He was wrestling Daddy Bear under the trees that morning when he heard a pop! pop! somewhere across the forest. Daddy Bear heard it too. It sounded like somebody shooting a gun.

Billy Bear got curious right away. He wanted to go and see what it was. Daddy Bear cautioned him not to get too close for fear he would get shot. So Billy started out in the direction of the popping. It led him over to Farmer Smith's farm. The nearer he got the louder the popping became.

When Billy reached the old orchard he saw Father and Mother Smith sitting out in the front yard watching Tommy. Now it was Tommy Smith that was making all that popping noise. Billy got a little nearer so he could see well. Then he saw a little smoke and Tommy would throw something and then it would explode. It was Tommy Smith shooting.

"That's what I'd call real fun," said Billy as he squatted down behind a tree and cocked his head so he could see all around. Pop, pop, pop, pop! My! but it was exciting! Billy could hardly sit still. He ventured on over to the chicken house and stood peeping around the corner.

There was that old rooster that cackled so loud one other day he was there. Just as he was walking across the yard Tommy threw a fire cracker under him. You ought to have seen that old cackle bird when it went off! He jumped in the air, flapped his wings and squawked till you could have heard him a mile away.

Well, Billy Bear just had to lie down on the ground and laugh till his sides hurt. He didn't like that old rooster, anyway. Now while Billy was rolling on the ground and laughing, Tommy Smith spied him there. Father and Mother Smith saw him, too. Tommy winked at his father and said, "Now watch me have some fun with that cub of a bear."

So Tommy slipped around without Billy seeing him, came up on the other side of the chicken house and peeped around to see what Billy was doing. He had gotten over his laugh now and was standing on his hind feet with one eye around the corner watching for more fun. Then Tommy lighted a whole bunch of fire crackers and threw them right under Billy's tail!

Now if you have never seen a Bear dance a jig you should have seen Billy. That whole bunch popped and fizzed under him to beat anything. Well, sir, you would have laughed to have seen that old rooster when the fire cracker hit him, but he couldn't hold a candle to Billy Bear. He didn't have any wings to flap, but he surely used everything else that he had to get away. Even Mother Smith laughed so hard at Billy that she fell off of her chair.

The night, Tommy Smith had some fireworks. The Sky Rockets and Roman Candles were so wonderful that all the people in the green forest stayed awake to see them. Everybody that could climb a tree got on a top limb somewhere and watched. The ones who couldn't sit on trees got as close as they dared and sat on the side of the hill.

Billy Bear brought his Daddy and Mother over to the old orchard and they watched with their mouths open in astonishment. Billy hadn't gotten over his scare in the morning, so stayed a safe distance away. The forest people never before realized what a wonderful creature man was to make such beautiful things.

It is hard to say who enjoyed that Fourth of July Celebration the most—Tommy Smith, or Billy Bear.
